Himachal Cong wants Kharge to decide CM pick

State unit chief Pratibha Singh leads race

HARPREET BAJWA @Chandigarh

A day after wresting power in Himachal Pradesh, newly elected Congress MLAs on Friday passed a typical one-line resolution authorising party president Mallikarjun Kharge to name their chief minister.

Himachal Congress president Pratibha Singh leads the race for the hot seat followed by former state unit chief Sukhiwnder Singh Sukhu and outgoing Congress legislature party leader Mukesh Agnihotri.

The first meeting of the legislature party at Shimla had to be postponed thrice before it began late in the evening.

The resolution authorising Kharge to name the new CM was moved by Agnihotri and seconded by Sukhu.

After the meeting, AICC's Himachal Congress in-charge Rajeev Shukla flanked by Pratibha, Sukhu and two party observers — Chhattisgarh Chief Minister Bhupesh Baghel and former Haryana CM Bhupinder Singh Hooda — made the announcement about the resolution. "Both our observers will give their report to the high command in a day or so. Then the decision on the new CM will be made," he said.

Shukla claimed that no MLA proposed any name and it is for Kharge to take the call. However, sources claimed that all MLAs were told to give two names for CMship along with their merits and demerits.

Right through the day, both Pratibha and Sukhu were lobbying will party MLAs seeking their support. While Pratibha met Baghel, Hooda and Shukla, Sukhu remained elusive during the day amidst speculation that he was keeping his flock of MLAs intact.

Before the CLP meeting, Pratibha's supporters raised slogans outside Congress Bhawan in Shimla, demanding that she be made the CM. Pratibha did not contest the Assembly election as he represents mandi in Parliament. However, she campaigned extensively across the state and sought votes in the name of her late husband Virbhadra Singh's legacy.

WHEN MANDOUS VISITS

High tides due to cyclonic storm 'Mandous' eat into the shore at Thevaneri near Mahabalipuram in Tamil Nadu on Friday. The cyclone will cross the north Tamil Nadu and Puducherry coasts early Saturday morning. In Bengaluru, the cyclone led to a dip in temperature coupled with light rain. CM plans overnight village stay on Dec 17

ASHWINI M SRIPAD @Bengaluru

CHIEF Minister Basavaraj Bommai is likely to take part in a 'Grama Vastavya' (village stay) along with Revenue Minister R Ashok at Baada village in Shiggavi taluk, the CM's home constituency on December 17. This will be the first time that Bommai will be taking part in a Grama Vastavya, an initiative started by his predecessor B S Yediyurappa when he was the CM.

Revenue Minister R Ashok said Grama Vastavya has become popular as it is benefiting a large number of people. Officials go to each house ahead of the Grama Vastavya programmes in villages and discuss their problems. Since the entire government machinery is present along with the CM during such stays, including DCs, Tahsildhars and SPs, it becomes easier to sort out people's problems. The demands of villagers range from artificial limbs to physically challenged to seeking land for graveyard to pension for the aged.

A BJP leader said, "People from various villages gather in one place during such visits. Also, many voters can be reached. This will surely help the CM as Shiggavi is his home constituency"

The Grama Vastaya is being planned at a time when the assembly polls are just a few months away.

Sources in the CM's office, however, said, "Bommai might be interested in spending a night at a hostel where Minister Ashok stays. We have no confirmation on this, but he seems to be interested."

'Unknown to law', says HC on Muslim couple adopting unborn Hindu child

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Bengaluru

EXPRESSING shock over an unregistered agreement entered into by a Muslim couple to adopt an unborn child of a Hindu couple, the Karnataka High Court said that such an agreement is "unknown to law".

Terming it a case of adoption for money, a division bench of Justice B Veerappa and Justice K S Hemalekha upheld an order passed by a trial court in Udupi which had rejected a plea filed by the Muslim couple seeking directions to appoint them as the adoptive parents and guardians of a minor child, who is now two years nine months old, under the provisions of the Guardians and Wards Act.

The high court said that the agreement was entered into on March 21, 2020, five days before the birth of a girl child, whose mother had almost completed nine months of pregnancy. Thereby the appellants, both adoptive and biological parents, have violated the rights of the child.

Dismissing the appeal filed by the adoptive and biological parents of the child against the judgment of the trial court, the high court said that even 'Mohammedan Law' does not recognise such adoption.

"It is shocking that an agreement is entered into between two parties with regard to an 'unborn child'. It is for the District Child Protection Unit to take responsibility of all such cases. It is well established that an unborn child has a life and rights of its own, and the rights of unborn are recognised by law", the court observed.

State BJP's war room to be on lines of its Gujarat unit

BANSY KALAPPA @Bengaluru

UPBEAT after its party's landslide victory in Gujarat assembly polls, the state BJP unit has started preparations to set up a full-fledged state-level 'war room' on the lines of the one that was operational in Gujarat. The Karnataka assembly polls are scheduled to be held in about five months.

According to sources, a central team of handpicked men arrived in Bengaluru a few days ago and are holding talks with BJP-RSS leaders. Election war rooms are equipped to deal with communication and strategy issues. Besides focussing on social media, the party is also planning to organise more people-contact programmes.

In August, the BJP had opened a war room near its office for coordination with districts and local units. The upgradation of the war room is aimed at overseeing strategy and operational issues for the 2023 polls.

Brazil players in tears after their agonising defeat in the penalty shootout (2-4) against Croatia in the World Cup quarterfinals match | AP | P19

CROATIA MAKE BRAZIL PAY IN PENALTY

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Chennai

FORGET the dancing. Forget the recency bias. It was always going to be a struggle. It is what Croatia do. They suffer. Their opponents, by extension, have to suffer. In the five World Cup knockout-out games they have featured since 2018, four have gone to extra-time and three ended in penalties. So, it was no surprise that Croatia's sixth one also went to extra-time. Their opponents, Brazil, were four minutes away from their first semi-final since 2014. Neymar had given the Selecao a deserving lead just before the first quota of 15 minutes in extra time. So, Croatia had no option but to finally throw caution to the wind and Bruno Petkovic scored the equaliser. In the shootout, Croatia did what they usually do: beat their opponents.

For Selecao, it's another opportunity squandered. This time, though, the regret will be deeper because they actually had the squad to win their sixth title. What let them down on the day was not just iffy finishing but a lack of composure in the final third. They repeatedly undercooked or overhit the pass before the finish. Coach Tite, much revered within the side, also should take some flak because of some questionable substitutions.

RTI Act not applicable to Collegium discussions: SC

SHRUTI KAKKAR @New Delhi

THE Supreme Court on Friday rejected a plea seeking full details of the Collegium meeting that took place on December 12, 2018 under the RTI Act, saying the discussions and consultations among Collegium members can't be disclosed as they are not final decisions.

A bench of judges M R Shah and C T Ravikumar said a decision is termed final only after it is formally drawn and signed by all Collegium members. Till then, it can only be considered a "tentative decision", which can't be put in public domain.

"During the consultation if some discussion takes place but no final decision is taken and no resolution is drawn, it cannot be said that any final decision is taken by the Collegium," the court explained.

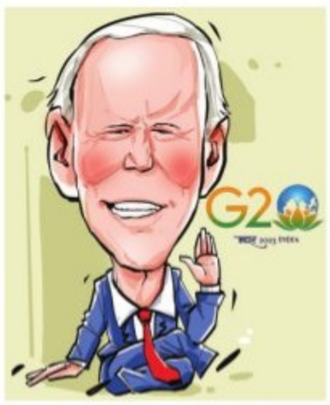
The SC's order came on a plea filed by RTI activist Anjali Bharadwaj seeking the agenda, minutes and resolution of the 2018 Collegium meeting. According to the autobiography of former CJI Ranjan Gogoi, the 2018 meet had agreed to elevate the then Rajasthan High Court Chief Justice Pradeep Nandrajog and the then Delhi High Court Chief Justice Rajendra Menon to the SC. However, the decision was kept in abeyance after the news of their elevation was leaked.

The petitioner also cited an article written by a former Collegium member expressing disappointment over the SC's failure to upload the decision taken at the December 2018 meeting.

While dismissing the plea, the bench cited a subsequent resolution passed by the Collegium on January 10, 2019, indicating that no final decision on elevating the two judges was taken in the 2018 meeting.

G20 EVENTS

Taste of India with a bit of Yoga, sip of herbal tea



SOURAV ROY

KAVITA BAJELI-DATT @New Delhi

THE Centre plans to use the G20 events spread across the country during India's presidency, to promote India's traditional medicine, indigenous products like herbal tea, and recipes based on Ayurveda. To boot, traditional medicine experts will be around to share personalised diet and well-being tips to foreign delegates, said Vaidya Rajesh Kotecha, secretary, Ministry of Ayush. "We have proposed that in all the meetings, there should be yoga sessions for which we will be the knowledge partners," he told this newspaper.

Kotecha added that the ministry has already successfully tried it at the recent SCO meeting held at a five-star hotel in Goa. "We coordinated with the chef on some recipes based on Ayurveda, to be served to the delegates. The recipes were highly appreciated," he said.

For G20 events, the plan is to organise a full-fledged yoga session, a five-minute yoga break or both, along with promotion of traditional medicine through different activities such as prakriti pariksha (Ayurveda's unique way of determining the body type of an individual).

Explaining the five-minute yoga break concept, the official said it's a short routine in which meditation and stretching can be done in sitting and standing positions. "All these are science-based, which our experts will help the delegates with," Kotecha said.

A scientific software will be used for prakriti pariksha. "We will inform the delegates how they can become healthy without consulting a doctor. They can achieve it by changing their diet, exercise, and sleep pattern. These are customised recommendations," he added.

Traffic woes? Tell cops face to face

Saleem's brainchild, Citizens' Traffic Forum meetings, to resume today

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

IF you are fed up with traffic issues in your locality, then here is an opportunity to air your grievances and get them addressed.

Starting December 10, the city traffic police will start conducting the Citizens' Traffic Forum meetings from 11.30 am to 1.30 pm, and hold them every second Saturday at all the 44 traffic police stations across the city.

While officers will provide solutions to traffic issues, residents can also offer suggestions on improving traffic that will be implemented if suitable.

The Citizens' Traffic Forum was the brainchild of Bengaluru's current traffic chief M A Saleem when he was Additional Commissioner of Police (Traffic). The meetings used to be conducted diligently once a month till he was in the post. After his transfer following a promotion, the meetings existed only on paper.

After taking charge as Special Commissioner (Traffic), Saleem has ensured that the meetings, which he started a few years ago, are held again without fail as part of efforts to ensure smooth movement of traffic and prevent road traffic accidents.

"Traffic police officers will listen to the grievances of the public and also receive suggestions on improving vehicular movement. The suggestions will be implemented if found suitable," said Kuldeep Kumar R Jain, Deputy Commissioner of Police, Traffic-West.

People can also obtain information on the action taken on their problems and status of their suggestions, he told The New Indian Express.

The assistant commissioner of police of each traffic sub-division will supervise the meetings. The outcome of the meetings will have to be briefed to the senior officers by traffic inspectors, who will be present at the meetings. Even the solutions arrived at will have to be brought to the notice of senior officers.

BENGALURU SHIVERS AS MERCURY LEVELS DIP

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

WITH a sudden dip in temperature, Bengalureans experienced winter chills on Friday. The city recorded a maximum temperature of 21.6 degrees Celsius, which according to the India Meteorological Department (IMD) officials, is the lowest maximum so far this year in the month of December. The difference in maximum and minimum temperatures was around 3 degrees Celsius. The minimum temperature recorded was 18.2 degrees Celsius.

Interestingly, around 5 pm, the temperature in Bengaluru was 18.4 degrees Celsius, which at that time was lower than in Chennai which recorded a temperature of 20 degrees Celsius. While Pune recorded 15 degrees Celsius, Ahmedabad experienced 18 degrees Celsius. In Kolkata, the temperature at that time was 19.4 degrees Celsius, Mumbai was 20.6 degrees Celcius and Hyderabad was 23.6 degrees Celsius.

According to IMD website, the temperature was 18.4 at city centre, at Bapujinagar it was 22.6, in Hebbal it was 20.4, in Hombegowda Nagar it was 21.1, in Jayanagar it was 22.1, on Silk Board Road it was 21.6 and at HAL it was 21.6 degrees Celsius.

IMD officials said the dip in maximum temperature was due to the impact of cyclone Mandous. The IMD has forecast a further dip in temperatures, coupled with light rain and cloud cover for the next two days.

As per IMD data, the highest temperature recorded in Bengaluru was 31.1 degrees Celsius on December 17, 2003 and the lowest minimum -- 8.9 degree Celsius – was on December 29, 1883.

The officials said that they were tabulating the data and checking records to ascertain if the temperature of Friday was the lowest maximum in the last decade. They said they were experiencing difficulty in weather assessment as the servers of the weather department have been facing technical glitches since a week.

Bengaluru first in country to house 3D bioprinting centre

Minister C N Ashwath Narayan inspects the 3D bioprinting Centre of Excellence at IISc in Bengaluru on Friday

BENGALURU on Friday became the first city in the country to get a 3D bioprinting Centre of Excellence, housed at the Indian Institute of Science (IISc). The centre has been established following an agreement between IISc and CELLINK, a bioprinting company that is part of BICO, a bioconvergence startup. It is being housed at IISc's Center for BioSystems Science and Engineering (BSSE).

"The centre will provide access to 3D bioprinting systems, enabling researchers to accelerate their work across critical applications with the ultimate goal of improving health outcomes. It will focus on providing researchers tools to advance discoveries in tissue engineering, regenerative medicine and drug discovery," the IISc said in a statement.

Inaugurating the centre, Science and Technology Minister C N Ashwath Narayan noted that it will play a major role in personalising medicine and healthcare services for individuals. "The 3D bioprinting technology, which enables printing of human tissues and organs, will facilitate faster and more accurate models for drug development. It will also serve as a hub for several research initiatives and training activities related to the emerging field of bioprinting technology," he said. He also pointed out that the centre will focus on working specifically on healthcare related to heart, bone, cartilage and cancer.

"IISc and CELLINK will work together to conduct workshops aimed at providing the necessary skills to utilise 3D bioprinting and to enable reap the benefits of 3D cell culture. The two will undertake and advise on research projects related to tissue engineering, drug discovery, material science and regenerative/personalised medicine," said IISc Director Prof Govindan Rangarajan.

MOCK FIRE DRILL AT KIA

Bengaluru: To mark Chemical Disaster Prevention Day-2022, the Indian Oil Skytanking organised a mock drill at Bangalore Fuel Farm at the Kempegowda International Airport on Friday. The programme started with a fire drill with operation officers immediately responding with fire extinguishers, but were unable to control the fire. The situation was then reported to the shift manager who informed the chief incident controller and activated the electrical fire siren. Within 10 seconds, the site incident controller, combat team, auxiliary, rescue and communication teams assembled and operated multiple hydrant-cum-foam monitors to fight the fire. Fire tenders from BIAL ARFF and districts fire teams also arrived and joined the operation. The mock drill was coordinated by company HR Head Ananda Kanchan, Deputy Director (Factories) M A Somashekara, Joint Director (Factories and Boilers) Navneet Mohan, CEO T S Dupare and GM (Operations) Praveen C. Around 300 participants from different industries across Benngaluru participated in the event. ENS

Meteor showers to light up B'luru skies

NINAN T K @ Bengaluru

THE much-awaited phenomenon of the year is here for all night sky gazers. The Geminids meteor showers are expected to reach their peak late on the night of December 13 to the early hours of December 14.

It is considered one of the brightest meteor showers and will be visible to the naked eye without the use of any special equipment. The annual phenomenon occurs every December, and this year, it is said to peak between 2am and 3am. Although in a clear dark sky, one can watch over 100 meteors, Bengalureans may only get to see a few of them.

"Due to light pollution in Bengaluru city, it will be very difficult to catch them within city limits. Citizens will need to go to a place outside the city, where the sky is dark, to get a better view," said Pramod Galgali, director of Jawaharlal Nehru Planetarium.

"This year, the gibbous moon will come in the way, making viewing a little difficult. Nonetheless, people will be able to catch a glimpse of a few if they focus on the sky for a while," he added. Galgali advised that the best way to catch a meteor shower is to lie on one's back and keep looking at the sky, as the showers are unpredictable. He explained that the meteor radiates from the constellation Gemini, from where it derives its name, and scores of meteors meet at one constellation making it appear that they are coming from it.

For citizens who want to know more and catch a glimpse of the phenomenon, the Jawaharlal Nehru Planetarium will organise an overnight workshop on December 13, from 10pm to 4.30am, to educate people on the night sky and recreate the Geminids showers.

Students protest over glitches in new varsity management system

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

HUNDREDS of students staged a protest across the state, including Bengaluru, on Friday, demanding that the results of the first batch under the National Education Policy (NEP) be released. The All India Democratic Students Organisation (AIDSO) also demanded release of scholarship funds for graduate students.

While the first batch of NEP students have already begun their second year, they are yet to receive their results, which has largely been attributed to the shift to the new Unified University and College Management System (UUCMS).

While the government has promised that UUCMS will streamline issues related to universities and colleges, students protested stating that the issues were caused and further agitated by the portal.

"Due to a change in both correction patterns and syllabus, the issuance of results is being delayed. Even logging into the portal is almost impossible as there are server issues, so students haven't been able to access their results. The results also haven't been issued by government and aided colleges, who are using UUCMS," said Apoorva, AIDSO Bengaluru district convenor.

Meanwhile, the Akhil Bharatiya Vidyarthi Parishad (ABVP) has sought rectification of several issues, both with the UUCMS as well as the newly introduced Karnataka Learning Management System (KLMS).

Daily Starscope

PETER VIDAL

10TH December : Today I'll finish my look at Venus. If you are a sky watcher, you'll know that sometimes this fabulous planet is the brightest star before sunrise, but at others it shines vividly after sunset. This is why it is connected to both light and dark, and to our deepest passions as well as selfless love. And it's strong at the moment!

ARIES (Mar 21 - Apr. 20)
The current planetary picture focuses on profound long-term developments rather than day-to-day ups and downs. Today, you have every opportunity to force the pace and you must expect partners to keep up with you. You'll have to decide just how hard someone needs to be pushed.

TAURUS (Apr. 21 - May 21)
Do you really wish partners to dance to your tune? You must be aware that, if they do so, they may become dependent on you and even impose certain unwelcome expectations on you in the future. Perhaps you are still not ready for such an increase in responsibility. If not, then you have to find a way to explain yourself.

GEMINI (May 22 - June 21)
As so often happens these days, planetary pressures were stronger during the week than at the weekend. This is precisely why you must not allow yourself to be bullied or bamboozled today. Next week is an ideal moment for getting new enterprises and initiatives going, so wait a few days.

CANCER (June 22 - July 23)
Strong influences on imaginative regions of your chart draw your attention to the benefits of travel and the maintenance of overseas contacts. You have every reason to take advantage of all opportunities to get away from home. There's nothing wrong with making an escape!

LEO (July 24 - Aug. 23)
Something seems to be drawing you towards a deeper influence in dubious financial activities. Please do not do anything you will later regret, and don't allow yourself to be swayed by over-optimistic friends. What seems to be most likely is that somebody who has let you down will repent.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 - Sept. 23)
Domestic affairs may consume too much of your time. However, if you pay careful attention to various comings and goings, you may rearrange family plans to suit your own feelings and interests. Intimate relationships will benefit from a dose of your good, old-fashioned commonsense.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 - Oct. 23)
A number of planets are bringing lively and interesting conditions, and there's a definite chance that a new activity might lead to a serious opportunity later. Do not be slow to put your ideas forward, because it looks as if there may be some cash rewards.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22)
If you're in a restless mood, it is time to think about travel plans. Only you know how much stimulation you gain from improvements in your environment and exposure to different cultures. And, also, you should get family finances in order without delay.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 - Dec. 22)
Planetary movements look encouraging, although there seems to be little to stimulate you. This is one of those days when you must rely on your own motivation and make your own entertainment. If you're looking for a financial bonus, then check out a family connection.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23 - Jan. 20)
A flash of inspiration may show the way out of a legal or bureau-cratic morass, you'll be pleased to hear. However, in the event of a misunder-standing, you must be prepared to give a partner the benefit of the doubt. They have done wrong, but they need your understanding.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 - Feb. 19)
If you've been concentrating on career issues, try taking stock today. The success of a particular partnership is a very important consideration, perhaps more so than financial rewards. In love, it's companionship that counts, and your partner should be your best friend.

PISCES (Feb. 20 - Mar 20)
There may be strange events around the home, perhaps the mysterious loss of a valuable item. However, any confusion will be cleared up soon, so don't panic. All in all, you must count this a successful period, and you can afford to congratulate yourself.

Spike in C-section deliveries in rural districts

Tumakuru, Udupi, Shivamogga top the table; Karnataka averages 32% surgeries

NAMRATA SINDWANI @ Bengaluru

RURAL districts of Karnataka have recorded an increased number of women undergoing C-section deliveries since 2019. Experts attribute it to a lack of facilities in the secondary healthcare system.

The Karnataka Health Profile 2019-2021 showed a higher frequency of Caesarean deliveries in districts like Kolar, Chitradurga, Bengaluru Rural, Shivamogga, Udupi, Mandya, Hassan and Davangere. Statistics show that in Tumakuru, 52.1 per cent of babies were delivered by C-section, which is the highest in Karnataka. Bengaluru Rural clocked 43.16 per cent, which is 13.16 per cent higher than Bengaluru Urban. Institutional deliveries also saw a rise, post a dip in 2021 due to the Covid pandemic.

Dr Rajkumar N, state deputy director, maternal health, said Karnataka has an average C-section rate of 32 per cent (public and private) and is better placed when compared to other South Indian states. The major reason for a high percentage of C-sections is a low degree of fear about the surgery, and also brings down chances of infant and mother dying, compared to normal deliveries.

According to the National Family Health Survey 5, Telangana recorded 60.7 per cent C-section deliveries, while Kerala and Andhra Pradesh recorded 42.4 per cent.

The high C-section rate can be attributed to high referrals in peripheral areas, in certain cases when specialists are not available at the taluk level, other doctors take up Caesarean deliveries, Dr Rajkumar said. If patients are shifted to private hospitals when already in labour, they end up undergoing a C-section to reduce cases of mortality.

Dr Sylvia Karpagam, a public health doctor and researcher from Bengaluru, highlighted the gaps in the secondary healthcare system. The unavailability of specialists or basic facilities in Public Health Centres in rural areas cause people to travel long distances. Dr Sylvia explained that people prefer to access doctors in nearby areas, but when they are not available and patients have to travel long distances, families prefer C-section to get done with the process quickly.

She also raised concern over the lack of knowledge about undergoing C-section deliveries, beside side-effects and complications that are not taken into consideration.

Ka-BHI ensures mental healthcare at ground level

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

THE number of people suffering from neurological and mental health issues has been increasing over the past ten years, Health and Medical Education Minister Dr K Sudhakar said here on Friday.

He was speaking at the Karnataka Brain Health Initiative's (Ka-BHI) 'Reflection to Action' event at the National Institute of Mental Health and Neurosciences (Nimhans). He said the number of years added to a person's lifespan is not the only important thing, but how a person lives life is equally important.

So far, 2,000 patients have been treated in all health centre facilities. Certain challenges like lack of community awareness, training of doctors, availability of drugs, and need for multidisciplinary care were noticed by healthcare professionals while treating patients from different districts.

Nimhans has also trained 122 healthcare professionals so far for providing care for mental illnesses. They aim to provide treatment and counselling with early diagnosis of any disease at the primary health centre level, and ensure that quality care is provided at the ground level, creating a strong rural network.

> The number of years added to a person's lifespan is not the only important thing, but how a person lives life is equally important
> Dr K Sudhakar, Health and Medical Education Minister

Deaths due to mental health and brain-related issues account for 7-8 per cent and are the second leading cause worldwide. Cases of neurological illnesses, stroke and others have been rising over the years.

Talking about the Ka-BHI initiative, Sudhakar said the state is already doing a pilot project in three districts -- Chikkaballapur, Kolar and Bengaluru Rural -- with the help of Nimhans through the hub and spoke model. They are also planning to make services available in all districts in the coming days.

PHC doctors are given a three-month training session in counselling and treating mental patients. In the coming days, the Community Health Officer (CHO), midwives and ASHA workers will also be given counselling to treat people in distress, the health minister said.

Pawn shop burgled in Adugodi

Miscreants gained entry into a pawn shop by cutting through its window grills and made away with gold and silver valuables in Adugodi police station limits at Navaratna Bankers in Ambedkar Nagar on Thursday. Shop owner Durgaram in his complaint stated that he had kept pawned gold and silver articles in the showcase and cash in a drawer, and closed the shop on Wednesday night. When he opened the shop on Thursday morning, he found the window grills cut. "The gold and silver articles were stolen and also cash was missing," the police said.

Attack on builder: Cops zero in on suspects

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

THE KR Puram police have intensified their investigation into the shootout case in which a rowdy-turned-builder and his associate were shot.

The investigation so far has revealed that the murder attempt was over an old rivalry.

Shivashankar Reddy and Ashok Reddy were shot at by unidentified assailants at Kurudu Sonnenahalli, in front of a construction site, on Thursday afternoon.

Both are undergoing treatment and are recovering.

Police said Shivashankar, a history-sheeter in Madanapalle of Andhra Pradesh, is involved in several offences, including four murder cases. "There are several gangs of rowdies in Madanapalle and Reddy had enmity with a few of them. There were attempts to eliminate him earlier too, but he had relocated to Bengaluru and had become a builder. We have recorded his statement and it is found that the murder bid was over an old rivalry," an officer said.

He added that the police have definite clues about the identity and whereabouts of the assailants, who will be nabbed soon.

Goons assault bakery workers, three in net

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

A gang of goons thrashed two bakery workers over a trivial issue, near Kundalahalli Gate in HAL Police Station limits, around Thursday midnight. Acting swiftly, police arrested three men within a few hours.

The accused are Karthik (20), a delivery boy and resident of Ashwath Nagar in HAL, Karthik (23), a resident of Marathahalli working as a hotel manager in Kengeri, and Salman (20) of Ashwath Nagar, who works in an aluminium unit.

Police said the incident took place at Sri Brahmalingeshwara Bakery, around 12.10am Friday when the accused went there to buy cigarettes. The miscreants picked a fight with the two workers and rained blows at them. One of the accused attacked them with a helmet, while others vandalised the shop.

CCTV footage of the incident went viral on social media on Friday. Home Minister Araga Jnanendra said he has instructed police to conduct a probe into the case. "I have directed senior officers to ensure that elements troubling shopkeepers and creating law and order problems should not be spared, and to ensure that such incidents don't repeat," he said.

The matter was reported to HAL police on Friday afternoon, and police and arrested the accused in the evening.

"During the preliminary enquiry, they said one of the workers spoke rudely to them, so they assaulted them," DCP, Whitefield, S Girish told TNIE.

Police said there was a delay by the victims in reporting the matter to police. "They approached police 12 hours after the incident. However, the accused were traced in a few hours after the attack was brought to our notice," an officer said.

Meanwhile, members of a trade body staged a protest in front of HAL Police Station, seeking protection for shopkeepers. Senior officers assured them of strict action.

Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai and former chief minister BS Yediyurappa will visit Sakleshpur as part of Janasankalpa Yatre on December 13. Speaking to media persons on Friday, former minister HM Vishwanath said both leaders will address the public at APMC ground. The chief minister is likely to announce new projects and grants for long-pending projects, he added

MAHA THREATENS PRO-K'TAKA GPs, BUT THEY REMAIN FIRM

Our struggle will continue till we get basic amenities, say members of local bodies

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE

SEVERAL gram panchayats in Akkalkot of Solapur district in Maharashtra which recently passed resolutions demanding the merger of their villages with Karnataka have decided to stick to their stand despite warnings allegedly from higher authorities in Maharashtra that their local bodies would be dissolved if they failed to withdraw the resolutions.

"We have made it clear to the Maharashtra government that we will go to Karnataka if our villages are not provided basic amenities. We will not back off from our stand under any circumstances," said Alage (Akkalkot taluk, Maharashtra) Gram Panchayat president Mahantesh Attur.

Eleven GPs of Akkalkot taluk and many GPs in Jath taluk in Sangli district had submitted a memorandum to the Maharashtra government recently demanding the merger of their villages with Karnataka. Several members of GPs in Akkalkot said they will not stop their struggle to get their rights.

In the meantime, Maharashtra Navnirman Sena chief Raj Thackeray slammed Karnataka over the ongoing border tussle and tweeted, "Karnataka needs a 'struggle' ahead of its assembly elections and that's why it has been deliberately targeting Maharashtra. What Maharashtra gained so far was all due to its struggle. Therefore, Maharashtra is prepared for all kinds of struggles and conflicts."

Blaming the Maharashtra Ekikaran Samiti for escalating tensions along the border, former deputy chief minister Laxman Savadi said, "We all politicians in Belagavi region are united when it comes to protecting the state's land and water. The MES game will not work anymore. We are not wearing bangles here and we are all men."

Savadi said in Chikkodi that MES is dead, while some leaders in Maharashtra and Belagavi are trying to wake it up.

The tension over the border row is adversely impacting business activities in both states on the border, he said, appealing to Maharashtra Chief Minister Eknath Shinde to keep all such forces at bay.

The people of 44 villages of Jath have been demanding the merger of their areas with Karnataka for a long time as the neighbouring government has not provided them basic amenities. There is no need to merge them with Karnataka, but the Maharashtra government should provide all facilities to them, he said.

SEVERAL Kannada organisations condemned the Maharashtra government for allegedly trying to suppress the voice of Kannadigas in Maharashtra's Akkalkot and Jath areas for demanding a merger of their villages with Karnataka.

President of Kannada Organisations Action Committee Ashok Chandargi said, "For passing resolutions in gram panchayats, demanding the merger of their villages with Karnataka, the Maharashtra government, with the help of police, is trying to threaten gram panchayat members.

The Karnataka government should send two of its senior ministers and the chairman of Border Protection Committee to Jath taluk for discussions with Kannadigas."

Only after Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai said that he would take steps to include Jath area in Karnataka, the resolution was passed, he said.

Cong sure to win 55-60 seats, BJP 70-75, shows assessment

BANSY KALAPPA @ Bengaluru

CONGRESS may fail in its bid to come back to power in Karnataka as an assessment states that the Grand Old Party could enjoy "sure shot" victory in only 55-60 seats, while BJP could win comfortably in 70-75 seats. The same analysis states that JDS could be sure of victory in 15-20 seats. The real fight is only for the remaining 75 to 80 seats.

Assessors said the parties could no way lose from these seats. The BJP strike rate is higher as it effectively contests from 175 seats, while its fight is only nominal in many seats in the Old Mysuru region. At the same time, Congress needs to fix many issues within itself, they added.

At this stage, it looks difficult for Congress to win a majority of 113 seats. Previously, the party has done well and crossed the magic mark only when the other parties were badly divided. In 1989, when the Janata Party split between Ramakrishna Hegde and Deve Gowda, Congress, under the leadership of Veerendra Patil, romped home with 180 seats. The second time it happened was in 1999 when SM Krishna won with 132 seats, and then, the Janata Parivar had split between Deve Gowda and JH Patel. In 2013, Congress won in 120 seats only because former chief minister BS Yediyurappa quit BJP and floated the Karnataka Janata Party, while Janardhana Reddy and Sriramulu launched BSR.

Pushing this argument, those who conducted the assessment asked how could Congress win a majority if there are no serious unity issues with BJP. After the massive win in Gujarat, there is a greater chance of BJP winning of its own steam or forming the government with the help of other smaller parties, the assessment said.

Congress' dream of winning 113 seats looks unrealistic at this point, as the opposition party is dogged with leadership and unity issues. The assessment also looked at social engineering efforts by the ruling party to get the support of SC Left, ST Valmiki Nayakas and non-Kuruba OBCs. At the same time, it has kept its Lingayat support base intact in spite of sabre rattling by Panchamsalis.

Congress has admitted that it has "poor quality candidates" in around 15 seats. But it would be a herculean task for party leaders to win a majority, it stated.

The fact that BJP could tamp down anti-incumbency against its government and ensure that the Morbi bridge tragedy did not affect its prospects in Gujarat means that the saffron party may put its massive poll machinery to work in Karnataka to brush under the carpet charges of corruption and maladministration against its government, they said.

BJP ex-minister joins Congress

Kalaburagi: Former minister in the BJP government Revu Naik Belamagi joined Congress on Friday in the presence of KPCC working president Eshwar Khandre, vice-president Dr Sharanprakash Patil, chairman of communication and social media unit of KPCC Priyank Kharge and president of District Congress Committee Jagadev Guttedar. Belamagi had joined JDS during the 2018 Lok Sabha elections. Along with Belamagi, elder brother of former minister late Vaijinath Patil, Baburao Patil of Chincholi, Pavankumar Walakeri and others joined Congress. Belagamagi said he quit BJP as it denied him a ticket, and later joined JDS after the latter promised him a ticket. "But that did not materialise. I will work as a loyal activist of Congress," he added.

DKS: Dalits have chance to become CM in Cong

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

KPCC president DK Shivakumar on Friday said there is an opportunity for Dalit leaders in the party to become CMs.

Shivakumar said that unlike others, Congress leaders will not talk about making a Muslim leader or a Dalit leader CM, but there are opportunities for Dalit leaders to become CM as they have experience.

Congress's strength is that it unites all communities and leaders from backward communities have become CMs, he said and added that many leaders, including KH Rangnath, Mallikarjun Kharge and G Parameshwara, have all led the party in difficult times. Kharge has been elected AICC president as he is the seniormost leader as well as experienced, he said. Kharge was instrumental in getting the special status for the Kalyana Karnataka region, he said.

Shivakumar said many from the state are going abroad for work and they send money to their families, but the government has failed to protect their interests.

The Congress leader, who recently visited Sharjah in the United Arab Emirates, said people from the state who are living there expressed their displeasure over the government's response when they wanted to return during the pandemic. Congress will have a separate department for their welfare, he said.

Siddu's tour may start from Basavakalyan

Bengaluru: Setting the tone for the 2023 Assembly polls, CLP leader Siddaramaiah is likely to start his state tour from Basavakalyan in Bidar in the first week of January. KPCC vice-president Basavaraj Rayareddy said Siddaramaiah is keen to start the state tour from Basavakalyan as it is the "karma bhumi" of Basavanna. The final decision will be taken by the party soon, he said. Siddaramaiah and KPCC president DK Shivakumar are likely to lead two teams to cover all the 224 constituencies. As per plans before party leaders, Siddaramaiah will cover 112 Assembly constituencies in around 40 days. Shivakumar will lead the campaign in South Karnataka and both will campaign together in some constituencies, said a Congress leader. BJP and JDS leaders have already started their state tours. ENS

From free pilgrimage to money, ticket aspirants open floodgates of freebies

K SHIVA KUMAR @ Mysuru

FLOODGATES of freebies have been opened in constituencies ahead of the Assembly polls. Autorickshaw drivers are receiving cash donations of Rs 30,000 to Rs 50,000 to celebrate Kannada Rajyotsava, though it was celebrated across the state on November 1, youth clubs are getting their tournaments sponsored, while voters are being sent in droves to tourist destinations and Sabarimala pilgrimage.

Aspirants of all parties are going that extra mile to impress their party bosses and voters to ensure that they get the all-important chance to contest the elections.

Cash is flowing freely in constituencies like Hunsur, Chamundeshwari and Maddur constituencies, to name just a few.

The aspirants say it is just the beginning and there will be more money spent as the polls approach. In Hunsur, aspirants have assured youth clubs that their sports events would be sponsored for the entire year, but with the rider that the leaders, who are giving the money, should be invited as chief guests for such events.

A JDS leader refused to call it a pre-ticket ploy, but said it is a service to the people that is carried out round the year.

In Maddur, BJP ticket aspirants and a potential independent candidate are in a competition to sponsor trips to Dharmasthala. Those from BJP have hired five buses to ferry villagers to the temple. They have opened offices for people to register for such trips, while leaders are busy attending social gatherings and extending monetary support.

Another aspirant, who has decided to fight the polls as an independent, has also sponsored trips to temples in Dakshina Kannada and MM Hills.

A Congress legislator, who had organised free transportation for those visiting temples and free water supply, has distributed sweaters to help voters beat the winter. A prominent Congress leader has announced free medicare to residents of his constituency at a medical college hospital and waiver of fees for students. Many have extended monetary support to the kin of deceased.

Gujarat lessons on handling BJP rebels

ONCE operational, the war room will come under the direct control of the central leadership and Union home minister Amit Shah and his team. Sources said, unlike in the past, Amit Shah is now fairly well-versed with state and regional issues. Prime Minister Narendra Modi is also expected to visit Karnataka in January and oversee the fully-operational arrangements by then.

One of the concerns of the party is how to handle dissent after distribution of tickets. It is taking lessons from Gujarat on how the rebels were dealt with.

On the other hand, the Karnataka Congress set up its war room a few months ago and while former IAS officer Shashikant Senthil has been appointed its chairman, Sunil Kanugouli will remain in charge. AICC General Secretary, Karnataka in-charge, Randeep Singh Surjewala is likely to stay put in Bengaluru till the 2023 elections are over.

Sriramulu stays at Siddhi hamlet, hears out their grievances

SUBHASH CHANDRA NS
@ Kerekumbri (Uttara Kannada)

TO experience the plight of Siddhis firsthand and to address issues of these forest dwellers, Minister of Tribal Welfare B Sriramulu stayed at the house of Rama Ganapathi Siddhi and interacted with community members till late night on Friday.

Villages in Nandolli Gram Panchayat in Yellapur taluk in Uttara Kannada were decked up with hundreds of people, especially Siddhis, wore their traditional attire and stood on both sides of the road connecting Yellapur. But it was a long wait for the minister's cavalcade to arrive. When he did drive in, the festive welcome party was struggling to keep its eyes open. Despite the late hour, they beat the drum enthusiastically and offered Sriramulu a grand welcome.

The minister then reached Rama's house at Kerekumbri in the forest. Accompanied by BJP MLC Shantaram Siddhi, he obliged community members' request for photos and selfies.

He refused to have dinner as he was late and started his discussion with Siddhi leaders. The community members complained about lack of housing, proper education, connectivity and basic amenities like drinking water and electricity.

Sriramulu said this Gramya Vastavya (village stay) will create awareness about the tribal community and help the government bring them to the mainstream.

As education was the most fervent demand, he promised the community that a residential school will be built at Yellapur. On malnutrition among Siddhi children, he said, "We will provide nutritious food to children and ensure that government schemes are available to them. People have asked for roads, water and electricity, which will be provided soon."

He refused a mattress, sat on a mat, and used a bed spread to sleep.

'REDDY IS STILL MY FRIEND, BUT BJP MY MOTHER'

Minister of Tribal Welfare B Sriramulu refused to respond to rumours that Gali Janardhana Reddy, his close friend, will float a new political party. Speaking to reporters, he reiterated that Reddy is his friend, and the party is like his mother, who nurtured him and made a person from the backward community minister four times. "The party has taught me discipline. It's like a mother to me. Friendship with Reddy is entirely different. I am indebted to him," he said.

Taking strong exception to the ECI accepting TRS' request to change its name from 'Telangana Rashtra Samithi' to 'Bharat Rashtra Samithi', TPCC chief A Revanth Reddy said he has already filed a petition in the Delhi High Court

Vizhinjam port to meet deadline: Min

KERALA Ports Minister Ahamed Devarkovil informed the Assembly that the Vizhinjam International Seaport project would be completed on time, despite the protest that resulted in a loss of 100 work days. According to him, the pace of work would be enhanced so that the first ship would dock at the port during Onam next year. The minister, however, said that there was no evidence of people trying to sabotage the project.

Devarkovil said the construction company resumed work a day after the protesters agreed to stop their stir on Tuesday. "We plan to compensate the work days lost based on a countdown calendar. The company has agreed to double the load of stones to be brought from the existing 15,000 tonnes per day. Directions have been issued to increase the number of barges to bring stones, and construct a new load-out facility and a 400-m berth," said the minister.

He added that the port has the ability to transform the economy of the state by bringing in progress to industrial and tourism sectors. He also assured that locals would also benefit in terms of employment and skill development.

"The port is likely to bring indirect economic growth. It will pave the way for more warehouses, hotels and residential buildings," said Devarkovil.

The minister further added that the Vizhinjam port would attract more mother ships that hitherto used the Colombo port.

IMD: Mandous to cross north TN coast today

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Chennai

THE cyclonic storm 'Mandous' will cross the north Tamil Nadu and Puducherry coasts near Mahabalipuram, between the midnight of Friday and the wee hours of Saturday, the India Meteorological Department (IMD) has informed.

Chennai and its neighboring districts have received heavy rainfall. Between the night to Thursday to Friday evening, the Nungambakkam and Meenambakkam weather stations in Chennai received over 10 cm of rainfall and actual showdown will begin hours before landfall till Saturday noon.

S Balachandran, Deputy Director General of Meteorology, Regional Meteorological Centre, said at 6 pm on Friday that the cyclone over southwest Bay of Bengal lay centered about 135 km southeast of Mahabalipuram and about 170 km off Chennai. The cyclone was being continuously monitored by doppler weather radar located at Karaikal and Chennai. He added that the weather system will cross the coast as a cyclonic storm, with a maximum sustained wind speed of 65-75 kmph, gusting to 85 kmph.

Some weather models suggest that the cyclonic storm would weaken into deep depression at the time of landfall, but IMD maintains that it will cross as a cyclonic storm.

At Dharmasthala, two trucks and a boat were seized. The accused, however, managed to escape during the raid. Trucks, tippers, earth-movers and sand valued at Rs 40 lakh were seized. Three criminal cases have been registered. "Illegal sand mining is causing a big loss to the state's exchequer. We will take action against officials for their negligence in putting an end to illegal sand mining," the SP said.

Meanwhile, Laxmi Ganesh held a live phone-in programme and received over 25 complaints of corruption and maladministration, which lead to delay in finishing work by government agencies on Friday. There were many complaints against Karnataka Pollution Control Board, Revenue Department and Mangalore Urban Development Authority. The SP assured of action and urged the public to send their complaints on landlines 0824-2950997/2427237. The phone-in programme is being held second Friday of the month.

Tunnel through Shiradi Ghat road scrapped

ENS @Mangaluru

UNION Minister for Road Transport and Highways Nitin Gadkari on Thursday told the Lok Sabha that the proposed green tunnel bypass through Shiradi Ghat on Bengaluru-Mangaluru National Highway 75 is not viable, and instead, he has asked the National Highways Authority of India (NHAI) to prepare a detailed project report (DPR) for a four-lane road on the 26-km ghat stretch.

He was answering a question on the present status of Shiradi Ghat posed by Dakshina Kannada MP Nalin Kumar Kateel. The minister said, "Construction of tunnels in Shiradi Ghat section involves huge investment as well as difficulties in execution of work, and may not be viable." The ministry has decided to develop the existing two-lane road to four-lane configuration, with improvement in the geometrics by providing suitable retaining structures. NHAI has already engaged a DPR consultant and the report is in progress, Gadkari added.

The tunnel bypass project was initially proposed about eight years ago. Gadkari, during his visit to Mangaluru in February, had announced that the bypass project would take off soon, entailing an expenditure of about Rs 14,000 crore. The bypass was supposed to include six tunnels and seven bridges, thereby reducing travel time by about an hour. At present, it takes about 9-10 hours for a journey between Bengaluru and Mangaluru, with the existing highway between Sakleshpur and Maranahalli in Hassan district being in a dilapidated condition.

The 26-km concrete ghat road was severely affected by heavy rain in 2018 and 2019, with the embankment of Kempu Hole collapsing in at least 21 locations.

Rising temp impacting crops: Former UAS V-C

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

FORMER University of Agricultural Studies, Bengaluru, (UAS) vice-chancellor Dr S Rajendra Prasad said that rising temperatures are impacting crops. Speaking on climate change at the 11th UGIT International Conference on Friday, the former UAS V-C said that the yield of crops and their maturity are being affected by constant rise in temperature in the state. "Rising temperature has a great impact on advancing maturity and the yield of the crops. A shortage of water will also be a big obstacle in the days to come," he said.

The two-day conference, on the theme 'Climate Change: Environmental and Soil Sustainability - Advanced Geopolitical Solutions', was organised by Bangalore University's Department of Geography.

Karnataka State Disaster Management Authority Director Dr Manoj Rajan said that geography is something that needs to be treated as an opportunity, rather than a subject. "The use of geo-spatial technology is exponentially growing. The technology allows us to reach remote areas, which proves its ability to help in various fields," he said.

AMID STOCK MARKET RUSH, RETAIL INVESTORS MUST EXERCISE CAUTION

After roaring to a new all-time high last week, the equity market in the country has taken a breather. High inflation and RBI's stated vow to hack price pressures down by hiking interest rates have not diminished market performance. So are many other local triggers: a stumbling rupee, falling exports, GDP growth under pressure, rising current account deficit (CAD) and unemployment in the country. It is difficult to disagree with the argument that the stock market is no longer an apt economic barometer for India. The increased inflows by foreign portfolio investors (FPIs) riding the 'There is no alternative' factor, as well as an unprecedented rush of overly eager, neophyte retail investors in pursuit of some quick gains, have meanwhile sent stocks to the stratosphere.

A recent report by Morgan Stanley has predicted an "absolute upside with relative downsides" for the domestic equity market, with the Sensex rallying 10% in a base case scenario in 2023 and scaling to 68,500 points by next December. No wonder retail investors are flocking to the market hoping to cash in on the boom. According to the Association of Mutual Funds in India, over 14 million new SIP (systematic investment plan) accounts were registered from April to October. At the last count, the mutual fund industry had about 60.5 million SIP accounts. SIPs are the preferred instruments for investors who regularly invest in MF schemes. According to the sales and marketing head of Mercedes-Benz India, SIPs are eating into even the luxury car market as their actual sales are far from India's potential and wealth.

Of course, emerging markets, including India, are likely to benefit from the foreign fund flow. But one should not ignore the underlying challenges. For retail investors, it may be foolhardy to put all their eggs in one basket. Morgan Stanley has pointed out some downside risks too. A deep and broad US recession leading to slowing earnings and a consequent rise in the dollar could put pressure on India's balance of payments. Similarly, a resurgence in oil prices may push inflation and interest rates up, leading to corrections in equity returns. Recent reports also suggest that the corporate profit-to-GDP ratio has declined sharply in the last two quarters, reversing the steep rise in the previous quarters. Every retail investor should exercise adequate caution before placing a bet on the equity market.

CONFRONT SEXISM TO KEEP WOMEN SAFE

The safety of women tourists, especially foreigners, continues to be a concern in India. An example of their harassment was inadvertently live-streamed when two youngsters brazenly misbehaved with a young Korean woman on the streets of Mumbai. The revolting scene went viral, invoking netizens' condemnation and action by the Mumbai Police. While the woman, a vlogger and YouTuber, handled the situation with admirable grace, it does not always end in such a tame manner. Women are known to be stared at, groped, stalked, and even raped by locals.

India ranks among the top 10 unsafe countries for solo women travellers on the Women's Danger Index on street safety, non-partner sexual violence, intentional homicide and other similar parameters. Websites offer abundant cautionary tips for women on safe areas, timings and transport, and what is best avoided in India. This lack of safety reflects the chauvinist male mindset—that a casually dressed foreign tourist, here to explore and enjoy herself, must be easy game. Often, this attitude targets both Indian and foreign women, with the choice of clothes and lack of a companion often determining a man's behaviour.

Social media played a key role in the Mumbai case, with the video of the Korean woman's molestation swiftly tweeted to the police, resulting in the men's arrest. Netizens apologised to the woman and urged her to continue her travels in India, which they assured her has a high tradition of 'atithi devo bhava'. Yet, as soon as the men's identity was established, it became a free-for-all for the online lynch mob. The Twitter debate degenerated into religious profiling, comments on and comparisons of culture, and the people's court convicted them swiftly. One commentator wanted the youngsters stripped of citizenship and dumped into a detention centre. The focus moved from the woman's safety to the men's faith. Citizens would do well to realise that the incident is just an example of the casual sexual harassment the average Jane faces in her everyday life—from the street to public transport, to her institution or workplace, to social gatherings and parties. It is often dismissed as 'eve teasing' but is much more serious. It amounts to an invasion of her privacy and dignity and goes unnoticed, and neither is the perpetrator held to account nor does the victim gain any relief.

QUICK TAKE

A DEMOCRACY IMPERATIVE

Western universities are promoting courses to help students improve their critical thinking faculty. Foreign humanities programmes are already making pedagogical changes to include critical thinking and interactivity modules in the first-year curricula. Their logic is that higher education must equip students to become informed citizens by evaluating government systems, respecting consent and insisting on having a say in creating rules and recognising injustice. Universities in India must embrace this approach. Colleges must introduce critical thinking to sharpen students' cognitive abilities and inductive and deductive reasoning. The ability to identify fake information, misused statistics, and empty rhetoric is the first step.

NEW FRONTIERS: INDIA, UAE AND TRILATERALISM

K P NAYAR Strategic analyst

SOURAV ROY

Eight meetings between two foreign ministers in one year during peacetime is rare in the annals of diplomacy. The last meeting between External Affairs Minister S Jaishankar and Sheikh Abdullah bin Zayed Al Nahyan, the Minister of Foreign Affairs and International Cooperation of the United Arab Emirates, in New Delhi on November 22 was the eighth structured, in-person meeting between the two ministers in the last 12 months. No other foreign minister has engaged with India as much as Sheikh Abdullah in the past one year.

In the previous calendar year, Thani bin Ahmed Al Zeyoudi, the UAE's Minister of State for Foreign Trade, was the most frequent official visitor from abroad to India. Al Zeyoudi's visits and return visits by India's Minister for Commerce and Industry Piyush Goyal led to the signing of a Comprehensive Economic Partnership Agreement (CEPA) between the two sides at lightning speed this February. Bilateral trade in goods is targeted to go up to $100 billion within five years—from $73 billion now—and trade in services by another $15 billion because of the CEPA.

The outcome of Prime Minister Narendra Modi's path-breaking outreach to the Gulf following his first visit to the UAE in August 2015 has been an intense and all-round engagement between the two sides, having no parallel in Indian diplomacy in the last eight years. The last prime minister to visit the UAE before Modi was Indira Gandhi in 1981.

In 2019, Sultan bin Ahmad Al Jaber of the UAE was the only minister from any foreign country who made the most number of trips to New Delhi, his visits often lasting no more than a few hours. More important for India than Al Jaber's current portfolio as Minister of Industry and Advanced Technology, is his role as Managing Director and Group CEO of the national oil conglomerate, the Abu Dhabi National Oil Company (ADNOC). India's vigorous engagement with Al Jaber transformed its energy relationship with the UAE from that of a buyer-seller nature to energy security partner. Today, oil from ADNOC is stored in all of India's strategic petroleum reserves, and for the first time, Indian companies are drilling for oil in Abu Dhabi under mutually agreed concession agreements. In terms of concrete results, often understated in India's public discourse, the UAE constitutes India's biggest success story in external affairs since a nuclear deal was signed with the United States of America.

Abu Dhabi has committed to invest $75 billion in India's infrastructure sector, and inflows through this commitment are ongoing, making the UAE the seventh biggest investor in India in terms of foreign direct investment. The two countries have strategised on food security at a time when food availability is a major concern worldwide, with such anxiety having been deepened by the conflict in Ukraine. Under this strategy, entities in the UAE have announced that up to $7 billion will be invested in India's food sector in the next three years.

The most significant diplomatic achievement of Modi's regular dialogue with UAE president, Sheikh Mohammed bin Zayed Al Nahyan, was an invitation to former External Affairs Minister Sushma Swaraj to be the "guest of honour" at a plenary of the Organisation of Islamic Cooperation (OIC) in Abu Dhabi in 2019. The invitation brought closure to a festering insult to India since 1969, when senior cabinet minister and later president—Fakhruddin Ali Ahmed—was disinvited to the founding Islamic summit of the OIC after he arrived in Morocco to attend the conclave.

The crowning moment in the all-encompassing India-UAE engagement was when Modi was granted the UAE's highest civilian award, the "Order of Zayed" by then president, Sheikh Khalifa bin Zayed Al Nahyan, three years ago. The current UAE president was chief guest at India's Republic Day in 2017.

What then is the next frontier for the India-UAE collaboration?

The two countries are currently working to overcome inherent limitations of geography and market asymmetry by upgrading their bilateral engagement to trilateral and plurilateral levels. Two years after signing the Abraham Accords between the UAE and Israel, India has moved to harness Israel's state-of-the-art, advanced technology for this country's huge market with the UAE's resources—financial and logistical. One example is the decision last year by an Israeli company, Eccopia, to manufacture autonomous, water-free robots in India to be deployed in the UAE for solar cleaning at projects in the Emirates. More such trilateral initiatives are in the pipeline.

In September, when leaders from all over the world gathered in New York for the annual United Nations General Assembly, India utilised a meeting of Sherpas of the newbie I2U2 group—India, Israel, UAE, USA—to speed up a project in hybrid renewable energy in Gujarat, consisting of 300 megawatts (MW) of wind and solar capacity complemented by a battery energy storage system. Israel is a world leader in solar technology, and the feasibility study for the Gujarat project is being done by the United States Trade and Development Agency as part of an I2U2 process. The International Federation of the Indo-Israel Chambers of Commerce is a new, unique tripartite initiative: its Founder-Chairman Merzi Sodawaterwala says it is the only two-nation business organisation to be located in a third country, the UAE.

Third country initiatives between the UAE and India have identified Sub-Saharan Africa for joint action focusing on capacity-building, collaboration in trade and technology, and joint projects aimed at supporting the implementation of the Sustainable Development Goals. There are large Indian business communities across Africa which will be tapped with the UAE's financial resources for this ambitious goal. On the sidelines of the 77th General Assembly, the first ministerial meeting bringing together India, France and the UAE for trilateral initiatives in the Indo-Pacific was held in New York in September. This initiative will explore triangular cooperation in maritime security, humanitarian assistance, disaster relief, connectivity, and supply chain resilience.

Trilateralism is the watch word for India-UAE cooperation in the next phase of what Modi started seven years ago.

AAM AADMI PARTY AIMING FOR POLE POSITION IN 2024

SANDIP GHOSE Current affairs commentator

In a popular Bollywood number of the Seventies, the heroine asks her suitor: "AAP yahan aaye kis liye?" (Why have you come here?). Apologising for a poor pun, one is tempted to pose the same question while examining the rise of the Aam Aadmi Party (AAP) as a political phenomenon in a brief span of eight years. Arvind Kejriwal entered politics riding the wave of the India Against Corruption (IAC) movement. His initial coyness about electoral politics was easily washed off with a dip in the Holy Ganges of Varanasi when he decided to contest against Narendra Modi in 2014. Though he lost the election by a large margin, he managed to raise his national profile, which—to a large extent—contributed to AAP's resounding victory in the Delhi Assembly elections that followed in 2015. Since then, he has not looked back. Along the way, he has sent his ideological attire to the laundromat several times and discarded promises in the trash can but remained single-mindedly focused on expanding AAP's footprint beyond Delhi.

To be fair, Kejriwal is not the first chief minister to display national ambitions. In recent times, Lalu Prasad Yadav, Mulayam Singh Yadav, Mayawati and Sharad Pawar tried to foray into other geographies. Mamata Banerjee and K Chandrashekar Rao declared their intent to go pan-India. But for the CM of a "half-state", that some disparagingly compare with an oversized municipality, Kejriwal's aspirations appeared audacious indeed. Punching way above his weight, how he managed to capture the imagination of a large section of Indians and the media—as a potential challenger to Narendra Modi, and AAP, as an emerging third force—can be the subject of a business school marketing case study. But even more fascinating is Kejriwal's remarkable unconventional journey from activist to politician.

Arvind Kejriwal's biggest advantage was the absence of any past baggage—either ideological or organisational. He belonged to neither a political party nor an NGO of repute. Before the Anna Hazare-fronted IAC movement, very few Indians had heard of Arvind Kejriwal. So, he could write his own script on a clean slate, wiping it as often as necessary to change the dialogues according to the need and public mood of the moment. Most regional leaders did not have a pan-India appeal. Many like Sharad Pawar and Mamata Banerjee were products of the Congress system. Their political DNA made them Congress clones. The Yadavs, Mayawati and Nitish Kumar were poster boys of identity politics, wearing their castes on their sleeves. Other leaders, especially from the south, were too deeply entrenched in their own regions. Kejriwal, on the other hand, remained ideology-agnostic. Unlike Rahul Gandhi who swings between being a "secular" kattar Hindu, Kejriwal steadfastly avoided the anti-Hindu tag. Although a populist to the core, practising "Revadi" politics to the hilt, he is perceived as being conservative rather than left-liberal.

> Kejriwal knows that opposition unity will remain a chimera because the Congress, like the old zamindar as Sharad Pawar once described it, will not be amenable to giving up the prima-donna position despite declining fortunes

Narendra Modi's Tsunami of 2014 created a political vacuum in the opposition space. Although people argued that the Bharatiya Janata Party had received only 31% of the popular votes—thereby implying that nearly 70% of Indians did not vote for it or Modi—there was not a single leader of consequence visible on the horizon who could stand up to Modi. Rahul Gandhi, the anointed leader of the largest opposition party—albeit with only 44 seats—proceeded to go on a long sabbatical—leaving the Congress virtually headless. Other parties were in total disarray, not knowing which way to look or go. So much so, the media was finding it difficult even to get opposition leaders to provide sound bytes against the government. In such a situation, Arvind Kejriwal became the "go-to-leader" for journalists. AAP's victory in the 2015 Delhi Assembly elections against the formidable might of the BJP made him the proverbial 'giant-killer' in the David Vs Goliath mold. With some astute manipulation of the media, Kejriwal made up with Share of Voice what the AAP lacked in terms of physical presence.

The 2019 elections further sealed the Congress' fate. With a diffident leadership and dispirited ranks, beset with defections and defeats in successive assembly elections, India's Grand Old Party appeared to be on a terminal decline. Kejriwal was smart in identifying this need gap and converted it into an opportunity like a shrewd entrepreneur (a baniya as he once called himself proudly). He started to nibble away the Congress' vote-bank in states where it was either in power or the principal opposition. But he assiduously avoided locking horns with dominant regional parties. At the same time, he eschewed temptations of forming alliances with any of them, maintaining AAP's distinct political positioning.

Kejriwal knows that opposition unity will remain a chimera because the Congress, like the old zamindar as Sharad Pawar once described it, will not be amenable to giving up the prima-donna position despite its declining fortunes. So, while his senior peers in the opposition try to trip each other in the guise of playing footsie, Kejriwal is busy moving his chess pieces with an eye on 2027 and beyond, keeping his options open for the long haul. The latter is Kejriwal's competitive advantage. Unlike leaders like Mamata Banerjee, KCR, Nitish Kumar and Sharad Pawar, who are close to or past sell by date, Kejriwal has time on his side. The strategy paid off in Punjab, and now, after getting a vote share of 13% in Gujarat, if he stays, it will certainly make him a serious contender in 2027. He is likely to repeat the same formula in Karnataka next, while making a creeping entry into other states as well.

Now, come Lok Sabha 2024. Play that Bollywood number again…

Someone asks Kejriwal: "AAP yahan aaye kis liye?"

Kejriwal: "Congress ne bulaya. Isliye." And just like that, the Congress left the door ajar for the AAP's entry on the national stage.

AAP charting its course

Apropos of Meteoric rise of Aam Aadmi party in 10 yrs (Dec 9). If the Congress is ready to extend its hand, the Aam Aadmi Party will not accept it. AAP knows how disappointed voters are with the performance of previous coalition governments. Hence, the Aam Aadmi Party may contest 2024 elections as a single party. A triangular contest (BJP, Congress, AAP) is inevitable.

G Purushothaman, Tirunelveli

AAP a rising star

Apropos of Data suggests AAP is a national player now (Dec 9). Long-term voter manipulation is possible if the Aam Aadmi Party competes with the major parties, as was the case in the Gujarat election. In the days leading up to the 2024 election, there is a risk that AAP may eat away voters. Interestingly, it has became a fantastic opposition in Surat and Assam.

Modi's persona

The phenomenal victory of the Bharatiya Janata Party in Gujarat can be solely attributed to Prime Minister Narendra Modi. His personality cult has overshadowed the anti-incumbency factor and other regional issues in his home state, catapulting the party to power for a record seventh time. The new entrant, Aam Aadmi Party, though falling short of expectations, made a mark with its remarkable vote share.

Kharge's Himachal tales

Congress President Mallikarjun Kharge attributing his party's Himachal Pradesh win to the Gandhis is not only disgusting but also an insult to the party's state leadership. Will Kharge ever act as the de jure president of his party?

C G Kuriakose, Kothamangalam

Cong and Himachal

The victory of the Congress Party in Himachal Pradesh is partly due to its focusing on local issues like reversion to the Old Pension Scheme, addressing the apple cultivators' grievances, and due to dissidence within the BJP. But the party has miles to go before taking shape as a viable alternative to the BJP at the national level.

Instil confidence in banking

Though the anticipatory bail of the PNB Kozhikode fraud's prime suspect M.P Rijil has been cancelled, he is yet to be taken into custody. Both the Corporation and the bank are in confusion about the actual amount lost. All culprits involved need to be put behind bars to instil confidence in the common man's mind.

SC seeks govt reply on women marriage age

Notice was issued by a bench headed by CJI in response to NCW plea seeking uniform marriagable age for women

SHRUTI KAKKAR @ New Delhi

THE Supreme Court on Friday sought Centre's response in a plea by National Commission for Women seeking uniform age of marriage for women. The notice was issued by the bench of CJI DY Chandrachud and Justice PS Narasimha.

NCW while also seeking for equal application of POCSO Act, IPC and PCM Act irrespective of religion/ personal laws had also sought for making 18 years as "marriageable age" of boys/men irrespective of their religion.

It was argued in the petition that although the minimum age of marriage under various personal laws other than Muslim personal law was in consonance with the prevailing penal laws. The plea further said that the same was not only arbitrary, irrational and discriminatory but also violative of POSCO Act, IPC and Prohibition of Child Marriage Act.

> The 'minimum age of marriage' for a woman is 18 years. However, under the Muslim personal law, persons who have attained puberty are eligible to get married
> NCW petition

"The 'minimum age of marriage' under various personal laws, other than the Muslim personal law, is consistent and in consonance with other prevailing penal laws. Under the Indian Christian Marriage Act, 1872, Parsi Marriage and Divorce Act, 1936, Special Marriage Act, 1954 and Hindu Marriage Act, 1955, the 'minimum age of marriage' for a man is 21 years and for a woman is 18 years. However, under the Muslim personal law in India, which continues to remain uncodified and unconsolidated, persons who have attained puberty are eligible to get married i.e., on attaining the age of 15 years (in absence of evidence), while they are still minor," the plea had said.

"The aforesaid penal provisions are age centric and not religion centric / personal law centric. There is no exception whatsoever provided under the said provisions on the basis of religion of the child and the same applies equally to all the children, notwithstanding the personal law by which the child is governed, his / her religion, caste, marital status, etc.," the petition further said.

Student's plea against Google dismissed

The SC on Friday dismissed a plea filed by a student who had sought ₹75 lakh damages from Google India on the ground that he failed to pass MP police recruitment exam due to being distracted ADs dealing with nude content on YouTube. Coming down heavily on the petitioner, the SC bench while dismissing the plea with ₹25,000 costs said, "If you don't like an AD, don't watch it."

Plea against religious shobhayatras junked

While dismissing a plea preferred by activist Teesta Setalvad-led Citizen for Justice & Peace non-governent organisation that had sought for regulating religious "shobhayatras" where people brandish weapons the SC on Friday said that India's cultural diversity varies from district to district and there cannot be a uniform guidelines to regulate processions.

Govt asked to adjust Ukraine returnees

The SC on Friday directed the Centre and the National Medical Commission to find out a solution to accommodate those undergraduate medical students who have returned from foreign countries like Ukraine and China, saying their career will be left in lurch if no solution is found. The SC said it hoped the Centre will give due importance to its suggestion and find out a solution to save the career of the students.

Top court tells Imam HC's remark won't affect his case

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ New Delhi

JNU student Sharjeel Imam on Friday breathed a sigh of relief as the SC said that the observations that have been made by the Delhi HC against him while denying bail to Umar Khalid in Delhi riots larger conspiracy case will not cause prejudice him in any manner.

Delhi HC while denying bail to Khalid on October 18 had said that Khalid was constantly in touch with Sharjeel Imam who was arguably 'at the head of the conspiracy'. HC had also referred to Imam as the main conspirator in one of its paras.

Referring to HC's para wherein it had specifically mentioned that its observations would not tantamount to an expression of any opinion on the merits of the case, a bench of Justices SK Kaul and AS Oka in their order said, "Any observation in respect of role of the petitioner will not prejudice the petitioner in any manner."

Court's order came in a plea which was preferred by Imam seeking to expunge HC's observation wherein it had said that it found it difficult in accepting contention that Khalid and the Imam had never spoken to each other.

SC asks Army to be 'fair' to women officers

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ New Delhi

THE Supreme Court on Friday asked the Army to put its "house in order" saying that it feels that it has not been "fair" to the women officers who have alleged delay in promotions after being granted permanent commission on the directions of the top court in 2020.

A bench comprising Chief Justice D Y Chandrachud and Justice P S Narasimha was hearing a plea of 34 women army officers who have alleged that junior male officers are being considered over them for promotions to perform "combat and commanding roles" in the army. "We feel that you (army) have not been fair to these women officers. We are going to pass a peremptory order on Tuesday ' You better set your house in order and tell us what you are doing for them.

"First, do not announce the results for the male officers who were considered in October (for promotions) until you announce their (women's) results,' the bench said.

The bench asked Additional Solicitor General Sanjay Jain and senior advocate R Balasubramanian, appearing for the Centre and the armed Forces, why they had not considered these women officers for promotions in October.

Probe sought into madrasas enrolling non-Muslim kids

KAVITA BAJELI-DATT @ New Delhi

THE National Commission for Protection of Child Rights (NCPCR) has asked all states and union territories to conduct a detailed inquiry of all government-funded and recognised madrasas admitting non-Muslim children. In a letter to all the chief secretaries, NCPCR Chairperson Priyank Kanoongo said, "The inquiry should include physical verification of children attending such madrasas. After the inquiry, admit all such children in schools for formal education."

The Commission wrote to the states and union territories following various complaints from different sources.

> The inquiry should include physical verification of children attending such madrasas. After the inquiry, admit all such children in schools for formal education
> Priyank Kanoongo, NCPCR chief

Kanoongo said it is noted that children belonging to a non-Muslim community are attending government funded/ recognised madrasas.

He said in various states and UTs, several children attend institutions like madrasas, which are of three types — Recognised Madrasas, Unrecognised Madrasas and Unmapped Madrasas.

Madrasas, as institutions, are primarily responsible for imparting religious education to children. However, it is also learnt that those Madrasas funded by the government or recognised by the government are imparting spiritual and, to some extent, formal education to children, he said. The NCPCR chief said it is learnt that some states/UTs are providing these madrasas with scholarships too.

He said this is a clear-cut violation and infringement of Article 28(3) of the Constitution of India, that prohibits educational institutions from obligating children to take part in any religious instruction without the consent of parents.

The Constitution, he said, makes it an obligation of the state to provide free and compulsory education to all children without any discrimination or prejudice and ensure that children go to neighbourhood schools for formal education as per Section 6 of the Right To Education (RTE) Act, 2009.

No India-Russia summit & physical meeting of Modi, Putin: Kremlin

YESHI SELI @ New Delhi

PRIME Minister Narendra Modi and Russian Federation President Vladimir Putin will not be meeting in person this month which implies that the India-Russia Annual Summit won't happen.

This is for the second time in 22 years that the annual meet will not take place. Last time, it didn't take place was in 2020 when the pandemic broke out.

President Putin had come for the Summit on December 6, 2021, and had extended an invite to PM Modi to come for the summit to Moscow in 2022. However, no schedule was fixed and this couldn't take place.

Kremlin spokesperson, Dmitry Peskov has said, "It won't be this year."

Busy schedules of both the leaders is being cited as the reason for the summit not taking place. "Annual summits depend on scheduling confirmation from both sides and no such schedule was made for this year. Its not like it was cancelled. India and Japan too have annual meets but it has been skipped twice in the past as it wasn't scheduled," said sources.

The ties between India and Russia continue to remain strong, with both PM Modi and External Affairs Minister S Jaishankar continuously reaffirming that the ties between these two nations are historic and thus were not influenced by geo-politics. After China, India is the largest importer of crude oil from Russia. India has maintained its position of sourcing fossil fuels from wherever it is viable, and Russia happens to be one such market.

Separate bills to modify ST lists in 4 states introduced

PREETHA NAIR @ New Delhi

THE government on Friday introduced four separate bills in the Lok Sabha to revise the list of Scheduled Tribes in Chhattisgarh, Karnataka, Tamil Nadu, and Himachal Pradesh. The inclusion of certain communities in the ST list has been a long pending demand of these states. Tribal Affairs Minister Arjun Munda introduced the Constitution (Scheduled Tribes) Order (Amendment) Bills 2022 for Chhattisgarh, Karnataka, Tamil Nadu, and Himachal Pradesh.

The Constitution (Scheduled Tribes) Order (Second Amendment) Bill, which was introduced in Lok Sabha, seeks to modify the list of Scheduled Tribes in Tamil Nadu.

Similarly, the Constitution (Scheduled Tribes) Order (Third Amendment) Bill is intended to provide for the inclusion of certain communities in the list of Scheduled Tribes in Himachal Pradesh. Another bill seeks to revise the list of Scheduled Tribes in Karnataka. The fourth bill aims to include certain communities in the list of Scheduled Tribes in Chhattisgarh.

'Have suggested HCs to curtail vacations'

Responding to the questions by BJP MP Balak Nath during the Question Hour in the Lok Sabha, Law Minister Kiren Rijiju on Friday said that the government to clear pendency in higher judiciary has suggested CJs of HCs to curtail the vacations by 10-15 days and extend working hours of courts by at least 30 minutes.

In September this year, the Union cabinet approved the inclusion of several communities in the Schedule Tribes list of the Constitution across four states, as part of the Constitution (Scheduled Tribes) Order (Amendment) Bill 2022. In Tamil Nadu, it proposed the inclusion of 'Narikoravan' and 'Kurivikkaran' communities in the list of state's STs. It has also proposed granting tribal status to the Hatti community living in the Trans-Giri region of Himachal Pradesh. In Karnataka it suggested the communities, namely, 'Betta-Kuruba' community as a synonym of 'Kadu Kuruba' in the state's ST list and it said that 12 communities from Chhattisgarh will be included in the list of Scheduled Tribes for the state.

Earlier in the day, Congress leader Adhir Ranjan Chowdhury targeted the government alleging that demonetisation failed to meet its objectives and circulation of fake currency has gone up. "The health of the economy is in a bad shape because of demonetization. It was launched with the aim of bringing back black money and preventing fake currency and terrorism. Nothing has been fulfilled," he said.

More than 50 private member bills were tabled in the LS on Friday, including the one seeking to revert to the old system of voting through ballot papers.

Tewari moves motion in LS for debate on SC collegium

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ New Delhi

AMID the war of statements between the Centre and judiciary over the collegium system for appointment of judges to the high courts and Supreme Court, Congress MP Manish Tewari on Friday gave adjournment motion notice in Lok Sabha to discuss on the judiciary collegium issue.

Tewari in his notice sought for discussion on the confrontation with the judiciary brought to the fore by recent statements made by various Government functionaries, including the Union Law Minister. He said that such statements undermined faith in the judiciary.

Responding to Tewari's notice, Union Law Minister Kiren Rijiju said, "We aren't like the Congress party that overturns everything and captures institutions. BJP respects all institutions of the country."

V-P Jagdeep Dhankar in his maiden speech in the Rajya Sabha had termed SC striking down National Judicial Commission (NJAC) as glaring instance of "severe compromise" of Parliamentary sovereignty and disregard of mandate of the people. The Union Law Minister Kiren Rijiju on certain occasions has criticised the present system of selection of judges through the collegium system by calling it "opaque" "unaccountable" and "alien to the Constitution".

Taking exceptions against the statements that have been made by constitutional functionaries on the Supreme Court scrapping the law that paved the way for National Judicial Appointment Commission (NJAC), the Supreme Court on Thursday had asked Attorney General R Venkataramani to advise the ministers to exercise some control.

250 rabies deaths in 18 states, K'taka tops with 32

KAVITA BAJELI-DATT @ New Delhi

NEARLY 250 deaths due to rabies were reported in the country this year from 18 states, with Karnataka reporting the highest number of 32 deaths, followed by 24 deaths each from Maharashtra and West Bengal, the Union Health Ministry told the Lok Sabha on Friday.

While Tamil Nadu reported 22 deaths, followed by 21 deaths each from Kerala and Telangana, both Andhra Pradesh and Uttar Pradesh recorded 19 deaths each, followed by Delhi and Bihar. Both the states reported 18 deaths each due to rabies, Dr Bharati Pravin Pawar, Minister of State for Health and Family Welfare, said in a written reply.

The ministry said that some deaths have occurred in persons who had been administered post-exposure prophylaxis in Kerala and were sent for repeat quality testing at Central Drugs Laboratory, Kasauli.

"All the tested batches have been reported to be conforming to required quality standards," Pawar said in reply to a question on the testing of samples and quality of vaccines that lead to deaths in Kerala, despite being administered to the victims.

REELING UNDER RABIES
18 states have reported 250 rabies deaths in 2022, Union Health Ministry has informed Lok Sabha
32 highest deaths reported in Karnataka, which declared it as a notifiable disease
22 deaths reported in Tamil Nadu
21 deaths reported in Kerala and Telangana each
3 states: Goa, Sikkim and Andaman have been able to eradicate rabies
24 deaths have been reported from Maharashtra and West bengal each
20,000 Indian die due to rabies every year, with up to 60% of cases occurring in children under 15 years of age

> The govt has aunched the National Rabies Control Program for prevention and control of rabies. It has been implemented in the entire country (except in Andaman and Nicobar Islands and Lakshadweep)
> —Dr Bharati Pravin Pawar, Minister of State for Health and Family Welfare

The deaths of at least six victims, who had taken the anti-rabies vaccine, had triggered a major debate in Kerala over the efficacy of the vaccine. The state reported nearly 2 million dog bites. The central government had dispatched a team following the furore.

The minister said that as per information provided by the Kerala government, all vaccines and immunoglobulin batches had been tested for quality before delivery.

Pawar said the ministry had launched the National Rabies Control since the 12th Five-Year Plan for prevention and control of rabies. The National Rabies Control Program has been implemented in the entire country (Except in Andaman and Nicobar Islands and Lakshadweep).

The minister said various initiatives had been taken, including procurement of an Anti-Rabies Vaccine for animal bite victims through the National Free Drug Initiative, capacity building through training of medical officers and health workers and strengthening surveillance of human rabies and dog bite cases.

She said that all the vaccines are tested for standard quality and released by Central Drugs Laboratory, Kasauli.

On what steps the government is taking to ensure the availability of vaccines in the country, the minister said that all manufacturers have been asked to ensure that the manufacturing of anti-rabies vaccines is carried out with total capacity and the first preference may be accorded to meet domestic requirements including government institution supplies in the country.

4-year UG programme for 2023-24 to be declared by Monday: UGC chief

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ New Delhi

THE University Grants Commission (UGC) will announce the Four-Year Under-Graduate Programme (FYUP) to be adopted in all higher education institutions from 2023-24 academic session, by Monday.

According to UGC Chairman Prof M Jagadesh Kumar, the National Education Policy (NEP) 2020 recommends that the higher education system should enable an individual to study one or more specialised areas of interest at a deep level and also develop capabilities across a range of disciplines, including sciences, social sciences, arts, humanities, languages, as well as professional, technical, and vocational subjects.

Accordingly, NEP suggests that the existing Choice Based Credit System (CBCS) will be revised to instil innovation and flexibility, Kumar told TNIE. "UGC is going to announce the Four-Year Under-Graduate Programme by Monday," he added. "Students who have already enrolled and are pursuing a 3-year UG programme as per the existing Choice Based Credit System (CBCS) are eligible to pursue a 4-year undergraduate programme. The university may provide bridge courses (including online) to enable them to transition to Curriculum and Credit Framework for Undergraduate Programmes (CCFUGP), " Kumar added.

The implementation of FYUP, which has already raised the hackles of various students' bodies and a section of teachers' bodies, breaks down the four-year undergraduate degree into parts. Moreover, it provides different entry and exit options. Delhi University has already approved the FYUP syllabi of various courses for its 2022-23 academic session and the classes for semester one started in November. The second semester is scheduled to begin in March 2023.

Prof Kumar said that although the existing Choice Based Credit System allows students to choose from various disciplines, it lacks a multi-/ interdisciplinary flavour.

NEP wants individuals to study more subjects: Kumar

According to UGC Chairman Prof M Jagadesh Kumar, the National Education Policy 2020 recommends that the higher education system should enable an individual to study one or more specialised areas of interest at a deep level and also develop capabilities across a range of disciplines, including sciences, social sciences, arts, humanities, languages, as well as professional, technical, and vocational subjects.

For BJP, people in Gujarat have proved anti-incumbency wrong, but the party has failed to put up a show in 3 HP parliamentary seats

3.4% rise in vote share results in 57 more seats

DILIP SINGH KSHATRIYA
@ Ahmedabad

THE rise of a mere 3.40% of votes has translated into BJP victories at 57 seats in this year's Assembly polls in Gujarat. The party secured 1.67 crore votes out of 3.3 crore, enabling it to claim a vote share of 52.50%. In contrast with the 2017 elections, the party's vote share increased by 1.5% compared to 2012's but it lost 16 seats (see graphic).

When Prime Minister Narendra Modi was the state chief minister, the vote share of Congress was continuously decreasing, although the percentage of votes that Congress got in the 2017 assembly elections was higher by 4%.

In 2012, the Congress got 61 seats with 38.93% votes and the BJP bagged 115 seats with 47.85% of votes.

In 2017, the Congress won 77 seats with 42.97% of the votes, which was 16 seats more than in 2012, with just a 4% increase in the vote share, giving the party 16 seats in 2017. On the other hand, the BJP's vote share in 2017 increased by 1.5% compared to 2012, but the party lost 16 seats compared to 2012. Thus, despite the increase in votes, BJP suffered a huge loss in the 2017 assembly elections. That year, the Patidar reservation movement, and the OBC agitation impacted the BJP, resulting in losses in Saurashtra and north Gujarat zones.

In the 2022 elections, both Hardik and Alpesh Thakor, who was the face of the 2017 agitation, contested on the BJP ticket. AAP also fielded its candidates on all 182 seats. Apparently, the negligible impact of the agitation and the entry of AAP benefited the BJP.

In 2022, the vote share of Congress decreased from 42.93 percent to 27.30% due to the triangular battle. The party lost more than 15% of the votes, and the party lost 60 seats. The BJP got only 3.40% more votes in 2022 than in 2017 and has gained 57 seats.

With this percentage, now it will be difficult for the Congress to breach the saffron citadel in 26 Lok Sabha seats from the state. The BJP won all 26 seats in the 2019 election despite the assembly election loss only two years ago.

A total of 3.13 crore voters took part in the democratic exercise this time in Gujarat, out of which 1.67 crore voters voted for the BJP.

Political analyst Dilip Patel says more than the percentage, the decision to change the entire Rupani cabinet after the Covid-19 pandemic has also paid off for the Modi government this time. The top BJP leadership realized that the party would face heavy anti-incumbency if the election had been fought under the leadership of former chief minister Vijay Rupani.

In Himachal, BJP trails in 3 of 4 LS constituencies

HARPREET BAJWA @ Chandigarh

AROUND 18 months ahead of the 2024 general election, the BJP has trailed in three of the four Lok Sabha constituencies in Himachal Pradesh in the just-concluded Assembly polls. These parliamentary constituencies are Shimla, Hamirpur and Kangra. However, the BJP has performed well in the Mandi Lok Sabha seat which is currently with the Congress.

The parliamentary seats have 17 Assembly segments each to form a 68-member House.

In the Hamirpur Lok Sabha seat, represented by Anurag Thakur, son of former chief minister Prem Kumar Dhumal, the BJP could win only in four Assembly seats out of 17 falling under the parliamentary constituency. All the rest 13 were won by the Congress.

Major issues in this parliamentary segment were jobs, inflation and train service to Hamirpur from Una. The people also complained about absence of their representation in the Jairam cabinet. The political issue was the sidelining of former chief minister Prem Kumar Dhumal in the BJP.

In the parliamentary constituency of Kangra, Congress won 11 Assembly seats and BJP six as people were upset over the lack of development work. They alleged the government was centred on Mandi. Besides, wrong ticket allocation, sidelining of the Brahmins and the administration's lax approach proved costly for the BJP.

The popularity of outgoing CM Jairam Thakur helped the BJP sail through Assembly segments in the Mandi constituency. The BJP has won 12 seats, giving a jolt to Congress which bagged five seats. This Lok Sabha seat is represented by Himachal Pradesh Congress chief Pratibha Singh, the wife of former CM Virbhadar Singh as the grand old party won the seat last year in a bypoll.

In the Shimla parliamentary constituency, the BJP could win only three Assembly seats. The Congress won 13 seats and an Independent won one seat out of the total of 17 Assembly segments. The factor for the Congress' win was the apple growers' agitation, over 18% GST imposed on apple packing, and 100% import duty on the fruit.

Harish Thakur, a political science professor at Himachal Pradesh University, says there is hardly a 1% shift in the vote share as local issues such as the revival of old age pension dominated the Assembly polls.

BJP left looking for ways to match Cong

The ruling Congress got a shot in the arm on Thursday as it retained the Bhanupratapur Assembly seat in the bypolls, but the result would give the BJP enough to worry about. The Assembly elections are due next year and the BJP seems to continue to struggle to put up a powerful leader who can strongly counter CM Bhupesh Baghel's presence, according to political observers. Congress candidate Savitri Mandavi defeated her nearest rival BJP's Brahmananda Netam by a margin of 21,171 votes. Congress, which has 71 MLAs in the 90-member House, has won all five bypolls held so far after it came to power in December 2018.

Top officials review security in Bastar

The state is witnessing a big push towards construction of roads and bridges in the Maoist epicentre of Bastar. Also, the security camps, which have been set up in big numbers in the recent years, are making a difference in the development of the region, boosting the execution of various welfare schemes related to education, health and electricity supply, among others. A team of senior administrative and police officials recently visited the remote areas of Bastar to review the development and security situation. They also met the villagers to seek their feedback on the development initiatives.

Tiger population rises in Indravati Reserve

The Wildlife Institute of India, Dehradun, has confirmed a new tiger found at Indravati Tiger Reserve in Bastar. The news came as a happy development since the previous evaluation conducted by the National Tiger Conservation Authority had flagged Chhattisgarh for doing enough for 'Save the tiger' mission since the big cat population had dwindled by 59%. Indravati Tiger Reserve is spread over 2,799sq.km adjacent to the forested terrain of Maharashtra and Telangana, and acts as a suitable corridor for the movement of animals. It now has six tigers.

Nitish under attack after JD(U) loses Kurhani bypoll

RAMASHANKAR @ Patna

Even as Bihar Deputy Chief Minister Tejashwi Yadav sought to downplay the grand alliance candidate's defeat in Kurhani Assembly bypoll, his party leader Anil Sahni, who had won the seat in 2020, demanded the resignation of Chief Minister Nitish Kumar.

Tejashwi, who was in Singapore for the kidney transplant of his father and RJD chief Lalu Prasad, said on his return, "We will review the result of Kurhani bye-election where the JD(U) candidate lost to the BJP nominee by a small margin. We had earlier lost the Gopalganj bypoll with a slender margin. Now, we have to see where the mistake was made," he added.

On Prime Minister Narendra Modi's remark that the Kurhani bye-election result was an indication to the future politics of the state, Tejashwi said, "He has spoken on Kurhani but why was he silent about the results of the bypolls to Mokama and Gopalganj," he said.

Meanwhile, RJD leader Sahni demanded Nitish's resignation. He was disqualified from the Assembly after his conviction in the LTC scam. "The Extremely Backward Caste vote bank is no longer with Nitish," Sahni said, demanding Tejashwi's elevation to the CM's post.

Earlier, JD(U) parliamentary board chairman Upendra Kushwaha, considered a close confidant of Nitish, advised the party to introspect.

"We should understand that people will not move as per our calculations but we have to move in accordance with their wishes," he tweeted while quoting a poem of former prime minister Atal Bihari Vajpayee.

Meanwhile, former Union minister RCP Singh took a dig at Nitish and said, "Nitish will continue to dream about becoming PM and in the process, he will lose Bihar too."

Post Akhilesh-Shivpal patch-up, BJP may have sleepless nights

NAMITA BAJPAI @ Lucknow

THE merger of Shivpal Yadav-led Pragatisheel Samajwadi Party-Lohia and Akhilesh Yadav-led Samajwadi Party prompt the BJP to return to the drawing board to devise a fresh strategy for not only the big battle of 2024 but also the upcoming civic polls. The SP has decided to fight the urban local body polls on its symbol for the first time.

The Akhilesh-Shivpal reunion had been visible since the demise of SP patriarch Mulayam Singh Yadav. It has now been cemented by Dimple Yadav's victory. Hours after Akhilesh presented his party flag to Shivpal in Saifai on Thursday, the latter and his son Aditya changed their Twitter accounts to identify themselves as SP leaders.

"In the coming days, chachaji will be given a bigger role in Samajwadi Party and his party workers will be given due respect," Akhilesh said.

Dimple's victory in Mainpuri with a margin of over 2.88 lakh votes over BJP's Raghuraj Singh Shakya consolidated the reconciliation between Akhilesh and Shivpal.

"Being seen as homecoming, the merger of his party with SP will strengthen the hands of not only Akhilesh but also reduce the challenges for Shivpal who had been sidelined," Reoti Raman Singh, an SP veteran, said.

The family feud had hurt the prospects of the uncle and nephew in three polls since 2017, and the BJP had cashed in on it.

"Akhilesh would get the benefit of this reunion in potato belt comprising Kannauj, Firozabad, Auraiyya, Etawah, Mainpuri and Farrukhbad as Shivpal has a respectable following here," JP Shukla, a political commentator, said.

Setback to NC & PDP in local polls in Valley, Independents make gains

FAYAZ WANI @ Srinagar

THE results of repolling in two District Development Council (DDC) seats in the twin districts of Kupwara and Bandipore of Jammu and Kashmir sprung a surprise on Thursday. The National Conference (NC) suffered a setback in its stronghold of Bandipora while the Peoples Conference (PC), which has emerged as a strong political force in north Kashmir, lost in both the seats.

Independent candidate Nazah Begum, who was backed by the Apni Party, won the election from Hajin-A seat of Bandipora. She secured 2,706 votes, winning against Atiqa Begum of Peoples Conference, who got 2,283 votes.

Hajin is considered the stronghold of NC, and its MP from north Kashmir, Mohammad Akbar Lone, hails from the area.

The loss from the seat is a jolt to the NC as Lone's son Hilal Akbar Lone was leading the party's campaign for the seat.

Bandipora jolt to Farooq Abdullah

The National Conference suffered a setback in its stronghold of Bandipora while the Peoples Conference, which has emerged as a strong force in north Kashmir, lost in both the seats. The PDP was also in for a surprise as the party backed candidate Rifat Jan got fewer votes than BJP's Shakeela Akther

In Dragmulla seat of Kupwara, NC-backed independent candidate Amina Majeed won by a thin margin of 39 votes. She secured 3,259 votes while her nearest rival Shabnam Rehman of Peoples Conference got 3,220 votes.

Shabnam had contested the DDC polls in 2020 on a Peoples Democratic Party (PDP) ticket but switched to Peoples Conference later. Despite being a PC candidate, she contested the polls on the inkpot and pen symbol of the PDP. The PDP asked its supporters not to vote on the party symbol.

The result on both the DDC seats has come as a setback for former minister Sajjad Gani Lone's PC, which had emerged as a strong north Kashmir-based party after many leaders of other parties joined it after the fall of the PDP-BJP coalition government in 2018.

The PDP was also in for a disappointing surprise as the party backed candidate Rifat Jan secured fewer votes than BJP's Shakeela Akther. Jan secured only 612 votes while Akther bagged 877 votes.

The first-ever DDC polls in J&K took place in November-December 2020. The repolling, held on December 5, was necessitated since the counting of votes in the two seats was withheld in 2020 after two PoK residents — Soomia Sadaf and Shazia Aslam — were found to have contested the polls. Both the contestants were disqualified and polls to the two DDC seats were declared void by the State Election Commission.

HC stays Assam-Meghalaya MoU on border row, lists matter on February 6

PRASANTA MAZUMDAR @ Guwahati

THE Assam-Meghalaya Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) on boundary dispute cannot be executed until February 6 next year, the High Court of Meghalaya has ordered.

The MoU was signed by Meghalaya Chief Minister Conrad K Sangma and his Assam counterpart Himanta Biswa Sarma in the presence of Home Minister Amit Shah on March 29 in Delhi to resolve the dispute in six of the 12 friction points.

The two states had adopted the 50:50 template whereby halves of the disputed land went to Meghalaya and Assam. However, the agreement met with opposition, with many affected villagers in Meghalaya staging protests. They as well as many organisations in the state had appealed to the Sangma government to revisit the MoU but it stuck to its guns.

It was in the light of this that four 'traditional heads' of the Khasi Syiemship and Sirdarship had moved the court seeking a stay on the MoU's operation.

Agreement signed by CMs in March

The MoU was signed in March by Meghalaya CM Conrad K Sangma and his Assam counterpart Himanta Biswa Sarma in the presence of Home Minister Amit Shah to resolve the dispute in six of the 12 friction points. However, the agreement met with opposition in Meghalaya.

P Sharma, the petitioners' counsel, submitted before the court that if demarcation of the land is effected physically and boundary marks are placed pursuant to the MoU, the entire writ petition will be rendered infructuous and the petitioners will be without any remedy.

However, advocate general A Kumar argued that no interim orders are called for at this stage for reasons that the locus of the petitioners has not been established and no irreparable loss would be caused to them in the event the MoU is carried forward.

After hearing both sides, a single judge bench of Justice HS Thangkhiew said, "...it appears that an objection in the form of an affidavit is necessary to be filed to enable this Court to consider the interim prayer as prayed by the applicants/petitioners. The learned AG is accordingly permitted to file objections to the interim prayer and to the maintainability of the writ petition."

Listing the matter on February 6, the court directed that no physical demarcation or erection of boundary posts on the ground should be carried out during the intervening period.

Earlier, the two states had formed three "regional committees" each as they resolved the dispute in the six areas. They have formed an equal number of committees as they have now begun a process to resolve the row in the remaining six "complicated" areas.

Private member UCC bill tabled in Upper House

RAJESH KUMAR THAKUR
@ New Delhi

A massive uproar erupted in the Rajya Sabha during Zero Hour on Friday after BJP member Kirodi Lal Meena sought permission to introduce a private member bill on the uniform civil code (UCC).

The proposed Uniform Civil Code of India Bill 2020 drew stiff opposition from various parties, which feared that it could result in national disintegration.

However, Leader of the House Piyush Goyal (BJP) stood by Meena's 'legitimate right' to raise an issue that comes under the directive principles of the Constitution.

The bill seeks to set up a national inspection and probe panel for preparation of the UCC. Members of the Congress, CPI, CPI (M) and Trinamool Congress were vocal in their opposition, saying it will destroy India's social fabric.

MADHYA PRADESH

Shivraj attacks Cong in Kamal Nath's Chhindwara

ANURAAG SINGH @ Bhopal

MADHYA Pradesh Chief Minister Shivraj Singh Chouhan on Friday launched development works worth over ₹1,000 crore in Chhindwara, the home turf of his predecessor and state Congress chief Kamal Nath.

Chouhan was attending the Mukhya Mantri Jan Seva Abhiyan approval letter distribution at Bichua in the district, where he also announced the Atal Khel Mahakumbh to be held from December 15.

Chouhan also took the opportunity to attack the Congress. "Whenever I come to Chhindwara, some people are in pain. They promptly give statements in the media, questioning my visit here. I'm dubbed by Congress leaders as Ghoshna Veer (man of announcements), but let me tell them, it's the veer (brave) and not kayars (cowards) only who make ghoshnas (announcements). I make announcements as well as execute them on the ground. The health centre which has been inaugurated by me, was announced by me in the past," he said.

He also asked the gathering, "Tell me whether I should come here or not. Hum toh aayenge, kyonki tumne pukara aur hum chale aaye," he said, borrowing the lines from the hit song of the 1964 Bollywood film, Rajkumar.

Continuing his spree of initiating action against erring government officials, Chouhan suspended the chief medical and health officer of Chhindwara district and block medical officer of Bichua, following several public complaints against them.

Xi holds summit with Arab leaders in Riyadh

Vows to help GCC countries build a collective security framework as he wraps up landmark Saudi visit, closely watched by White House

RIYADH

CHINESE President Xi Jinping on Friday touted close security and energy ties with Gulf nations during summit meetings in Saudi Arabia that have highlighted tensions with Washington.

On the third and final day of his visit, Xi attended summits of the six-member Gulf Cooperation Council and a broader China-Arab leaders' meeting.

This is only Xi's third journey outside China since the coronavirus pandemic began.

The discussions came one day after bilateral sit-downs with Saudi royals yielded a joint statement stressing "the importance of stability" in oil markets — a point of friction with the United States. Washington has urged the Saudis to raise production.

"China will continue to firmly support the GCC countries in maintaining their own security... and build a collective security framework for the Gulf," Xi said at the start of the China-GCC summit.

"China will continue to import large quantities of crude oil from GCC countries on an ongoing basis," he said, also vowing to expand other areas of energy cooperation including liquefied natural gas imports. Oil from Saudi Arabia alone accounted for 17% of China's imports last year, and last month Qatar announced a 27-year natural gas deal with China.

Earlier on Friday, a joint Chinese-Saudi statement spoke of "focusing on emissions rather than sources" in tackling climate change, the approach championed by the resource-rich Gulf monarchies.

However, few details were released despite a Saudi state media report on Thursday that about $30 billion in deals would be signed during Xi's visit.

Riyadh and Beijing stressed "deepening relations within the framework of the comprehensive strategic partnership between the two countries, and reaching new and promising horizons", the statement said.

Xi's visit comes during tensions between Saudi Arabia and the United States, its long-time partner and security guarantor, over oil production, human rights issues and regional security.

It follows US President Joe Biden's trip to Jeddah in July when he failed to persuade the Saudis to pump more oil to calm prices. Crown Prince Mohammed bin Salman addressed both summits on Friday, promising "continuing Arab-Chinese cooperation to serve our common goals and aspirations of our peoples".

The Gulf countries, strategic partners of Washington, are bolstering ties with China as part of an eastward turn that involves diversifying their fossil fuel-reliant economies.

At the same time China, hit hard by its Covid lockdowns, is trying to revive its economy and widen its sphere of influence, notably through its Belt and Road Initiative which provides funding for infrastructure projects around the world.

Officials provided few details about the agenda for Friday's talks, but one potential area of focus was a China-GCC free trade agreement under discussion for nearly two decades.

Drawing those negotiations to a close would be "a matter of prestige for Beijing," said Robert Mogielnicki. A breakthrough on the trade pact could help Saudi Arabia diversify its economy. AFP

Spurt in Covid cases reported from China

BEIJING

A rash of Covid-19 cases in schools and businesses were reported by social media users Friday in areas across China after the ruling Communist Party loosened anti-virus rules as it tries to reverse a deepening economic slump.

Official data showed a fall in new cases, but those no longer cover big parts of the population after the government on Wednesday ended mandatory testing for many people. That was part of dramatic changes aimed at gradually emerging from 'zero-Covid' restrictions that have confined millions of people to their homes and sparked protests and demands for President Xi Jinping to resign.

Social media users in Beijing and other cities said coworkers or classmates were ill and some businesses closed due to lack of staff. It wasn't clear from those accounts, many of which couldn't be independently confirmed, how far above the official figure the total case numbers might be.

"I'm really speechless. Half of the company's people are out sick, but they still won't let us all stay home," said a post signed Tunnel Mouth on the popular Sina Weibo platform. The user gave no name and didn't respond to questions sent through the account, which said the user was in Beijing. The reports echo the experience of the United States, Europe and other economies that have struggled with outbreaks while trying to restore business activity. But they are a jarring change for China, where "zero-Covid," which aims to isolate every case, disrupted daily life and depressed economic activity.

Xi's government began to loosen controls on November 11 after promising to reduce their cost and disruption.

"Relaxing Covid controls will lead to greater outbreaks," said Neil Thomas and Laura Gloudeman of Eurasia Group in a report, "but Beijing is unlikely to return to the extended blanket lockdowns."

On Friday, the government reported 16,797 new cases, including 13,160 without symptoms. AP

Japan, UK, Italy team up to make new fighter jet

LONDON

BRITAIN, Italy and Japan said Friday they will jointly develop a future fighter jet in a project that UK Prime Minister Rishi Sunak said would guarantee national security and safeguard thousands of jobs.

The three nations held out the prospect of cooperation with European and US allies, which are developing their own "sixth-generation" planes, vowing to maintain "interoperability" among all the allies against threats from the likes of China and Russia. The new "Global Combat Air Programme" is slated to produce its first jets by 2035, merging the three nations' costly existing research into new aerial war technology, from stealth capacity to high-tech sensors.

"We're one of the few countries in the world that has the capability to build technologically advanced fighter aircraft," Sunak told reporters on a visit to a Royal Air Force base in eastern England.

"That's important because it means we can keep the country safe from the new threats that we face," he said.

"It also adds billions to our economy and supports tens of thousands of jobs across the country. But it's also good for our international reputation."

The announcement was accompanied by a set of images showing an artist's impression of the sleek new jets flying past Mount Fuji and over London and Rome. In a joint statement, the three countries said the project would "accelerate our advanced military capability and technological advantage" at a time when "threats and aggression are increasing" worldwide.

The objective is to develop by 2035 a twin-engine stealth aircraft that could be operated with or without a crew, that would be impervious to radar and boast features such as laser-directed weapons and a virtual cockpit. AFP

Fresh European sanctions on Iran after execution of protester

PARIS

IRAN was slapped with fresh sanctions on Friday after carrying out its first execution over demonstrations that have shaken the regime for nearly three months, as activists called for fresh protests.

Mohsen Shekari, 23, was hanged on Thursday after being found guilty of "moharebeh", or "enmity against God", following what rights groups denounced as a show trial, sparking international outcry and warnings that more hangings were imminent.

Britain on Friday announced wide-ranging sanctions against 30 targets worldwide, including officials in Iran whom it accused of pursuing "egregious sentences" against protesters.

European diplomats said the EU was also set to impose more sanctions on Iran for drone supplies to Russia and the protest crackdown. The sanctions are expected to be formally signed off by foreign ministers meeting on Monday. Germany summoned the Iranian ambassador, a diplomatic source said, without providing further details. "The threat of execution will not suffocate the will for freedom," German Foreign Minister Annalena Baerbock tweeted, criticising a "perfidious summary trial".

Iran has defended its response to the protests and accused the West of hypocrisy.

"In countering riots, Iran has shown utmost restraint and, unlike many Western regimes... Iran has employed proportionate and standard anti-riot methods," its foreign ministry said. AFP

30% spike in journalist killings

Russia's war in Ukraine, chaos in Haiti and rising violence by criminal groups in Mexico contributed to a 30% spike in the number of journalists killed doing their work in 2022 over the previous year, as per a new report released

67 journalists and media staff have been killed around the world so far this year, up from 47 last year, as per the International Federation of Journalists

375 journalists currently imprisoned for their work, with the most in China, Myanmar and Turkey

12 journalists killed covering Ukraine war

MOST DANGEROUS COUNTRY

The IFJ said "the rules by terror of criminal organisations in Mexico, and the breakdown of law and order in Haiti, have also contributed to the surge in killings"

2022 has been one of the deadliest ever for journalists in Mexico, which is now considered the most dangerous country for reporters outside a war zone

The failure to act will only embolden those who seek to suppress the free flow of information and undermine the ability of people to hold their leaders to account, including in ensuring that those with power and influence do not stand in the way of open and inclusive societies

Anthony Bellanger, IFJ General Secretary

Kurt Campbell

'India not a US ally, but another great power'

WASHINGTON

INDIA, which has a unique strategic character, will not be an ally of the US, but another great power, a top White House official has said.

Responding to a question on India, Kurt Campbell, the White House Asia Coordinator, said that in his view, India is the most important bilateral relationship for the US. "The fact is, I don't know of any bilateral relationship that is being deepened and strengthened more rapidly than the United States and India over the last 20 years," he said.

The US needs to invest even more of its capacity, and build in people-to-people ties, working together on technology and other issues, he said.

"India has a unique strategic character. It will not be an ally of the United States. It has the desire to be an independent, powerful state and it will be another great power. But I think there are reasons to believe that our strategic alignment is growing across the board in almost every arena," Campbell said.

There are inhibitions in both of the bureaucracies and there are many challenges, he acknowledged.

"But I do believe that this is a relationship that should have some ambition. We should look at things that we can do together, whether it's in space, whether it's education, whether it's on climate, whether it's on technology, and really move in that direction," he said. PTI

Govt to extend EoI date for IDBI stake sale

Last date for submission of EoI is Dec 16, which is being considered after stakeholders request govt to push timeline

MONIKA YADAV @NEW DELHI

THE government is likely to extend the expression of interest (EoI) submission date for IDBI Bank's strategic disinvestment till early January, according to a finance ministry official.

As of now, the last date for submission of EoI is December 16. This is being considered after various stakeholders requested the ministry to push the EoI timeline further.

The government will receive the financial bids by March next year, but the disinvestment is not likely to conclude by this fiscal. Meanwhile, the government will issue the EoI for the strategic disinvestment of Container Corporation of India or Concor in mid-January. The Centre is selling 60.72% stake in IDBI Bank, of which LIC's stake is 30.24%. Currently, the public holding in IDBI is 5.28%. It had recently said the consortium of foreign funds and investment vehicles can own more than 51% in the bank. It also clarified that the lender would continue its primary dealer business even if a foreign bank buys majority of its shares.

The official also said it is unlikely that the BPCL disinvestment process would resume from this year. He added that the strategic disinvestment of Shipping Corporation of India (SCI) will be begun once the Ministry of Corporate Affairs gives its nod for the demerger of SCI assets. He clarified it would be difficult to conclude the strategic disinvestment of SCI by this year. As per sources, the ministry will give its approval by this month.

The government has set a disinvestment target of ₹65,000 crore for FY23. Disinvestment secretary Tuhin Kanta Pandey on Friday at a CII event said the government has garnered ₹62,000 crore in the current fiscal, which also includes ₹34,000 crore from dividends released by CPSEs to its shareholders.

'Private sector be main source of investment'

THE primary engine for investment in the economy should be private sector and it may not be healthy for public sector to keep increasing capital investment, said Chief Economic Advisor V Anantha Nageswaran on Friday. Addressing an event of confederation of Indian industries (CII), he said combined spending of public and private sector should not drive up cost of capital for the economy. He added that the private sector should not be crowded out due to large investment by public sector. He stressed upon the need for greater role of private sector as the primary engine for investment. "Public sector infra projects have seen rise in investments from ₹6.8 lakh crore in 2011-12 to nearly ₹2.12 lakh crore in the last 10 years," Nageswaran said. ENS

Fintech BharatPe files arbitration at SIAC against Ashneer Grover

UMA KANNAN @Bengaluru

AFTER filing a civil suit and a criminal complaint against BharatPe's former MD Ashneer Grover, the fintech unicorn has now filed arbitration under the Singapore International Arbitration Centre (SIAC) to clawback Grover's restricted shareholding and the founder title.

According to sources familiar with the development, the arbitration proceedings have been initiated since Grover refused to comply with shareholders agreement. BharatPe had earlier sent a legal notice, and it has now initiated the proceedings.

Grover holds about 8.5% stake in the fintech unicorn and of which, 1.4% was not vested and released on the date of his resignation.

Sources added that if relief is granted, Grover may lose his unvested shares (1.4%) and the right to use the founder title.

Earlier in May, the fintech firm had said that it has initiated necessary action against the former founder Grover to clawback his restricted shares as per the shareholders' agreement and that it will take all steps to enforce its rights.

Sources said it has been urged that SIAC award Grover's restricted shares to BharatPe co-founder Shashvat Nakrani for a consideration of over ₹33 lakh.

Grover holds about 8.5% stake in BharatPe, of which 1.4% was not vested and released on the date of his resignation. Sources said if relief is granted, Grover may lose his unvested shares (1.4%) and right to use founder title

Grover went on a voluntary leave in January, and after that the board started conducting an independent audit of the firm's internal process.

In February, Grover had lost the arbitration he had filed against the company's investigation.

It was rejected on all the five grounds, sources said.

BharatPe has filed a civil suit and a criminal complaint against the former MD, his wife Madhuri Jain, and other family members for misappropriation of company funds. BharatPe has sought over ₹88 crore in damages from them.

The Delhi high court on Thursday issued summons and asked Grovers to file their response within two weeks.

Govt seeks Parl nod for ₹3.25L cr extra spending

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU
@New Delhi

THE government on Friday sought Parliament approval for net additional spending of more than ₹3.25 lakh crore in the current fiscal.

The additional spending includes over ₹1.09 lakh crore towards fertiliser subsidy payout. This additional spending is over and above the proposed amount in Budget 2022-23. The government had estimated a total expenditure of ₹39.45 lakh crore for 2022-23 in the Budget, as compared to ₹37.70 lakh crore for the previous fiscal.

Besides that, approval for ₹80,348.25 crore has been sought for meeting expenditure of the food and consumer affairs ministry, which will go mainly towards giving free foodgrains to the poor. Approval has also been sought for expenditure of the Ministry of Petroleum and Natural Gas towards payments of LPG subsidies to oil marketing companies and LPG connections to the poor under the Pradhan Mantri Ujjwala Yojana, among others totalling to ₹29,944 crore. As per the first batch of supplementary demands for grants tabled in Lok Sabha by Minister of State for Finance Pankaj Chaudhary, approval is being sought for gross additional expenditure of about ₹4.36 lakh crore. Of this, proposals involving net cash outgo aggregates to over ₹3.25 lakh crore.

Hero MotoCorp rejigs top deck

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU
@New Delhi

AMID decline in sales and tough competition from Honda Motorcycle & Scooter (HMSI), Hero MotoCorp has made changes in its top management team as Malo Le Masson, Head of strategy, mergers and acquisitions, and global product planning, has resigned to pursue opportunities outside the company.

Niranjan Gupta, chief financial officer (CFO), has been given additional charge of heading strategy and M&A for the company while Vikram Kasbekar, executive director on the Board of Hero MotoCorp, has been given the responsibility to head the key function of Global Product Planning as an interim charge.

Gupta has been CFO for the past six years and plays a key role in business decisions of the country's largest two-wheeler maker. He is also director on the Board of several associate companies, including Ather Energy, an associate company in Electrical vehicle space; HMCMM Auto Private Limited, a Joint venture for Fuel injection system, and HMCL Colombia, a subsidiary of HMCL for its Global business.

Mike Clarke, chief operating officer & chief human resources officer, Hero MotoCorp, said, "Both of them have an impeccable track record of delivering outstanding business results in highly competitive environment and their immense experience and expertise will surely contribute towards the company's performance."

Barring the festive months of October and wedding season of November, Hero MotoCorp has seen a steep fall in its sales this year when compared with pre-covid months as increased ownership cost due to repetitive price hike and distress in the rural economy has impacted overall two-wheeler market. Hero's exports number remains much lower than rival firms: Bajaj Auto and TVS Motor, and the automaker is yet to establish itself in the premium segment.

E-tail company Snapdeal defers ₹1,250 cr IPO plan

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU
@Bengaluru

ECOMMERCE company Snapdeal has called off its Rs 1,250 crore IPO plans considering the prevailing market conditions.

The SoftBank-backed firm, founded by Kunal Bahl and Rohit Bansal, in December 2021 filed its draft red herring prospectus (DRHP) with market regulator SEBI, but it shelved the plan due to the present tough market conditions.

In a statement to this newspaper, Snapdeal said, "Considering the prevailing market conditions, the company has decided to withdraw the DRHP. The company may reconsider an IPO in the future depending on its need for growth capital and market conditions."

Snapdeal was looking for an offer for sale from existing investors of up to 3,07,69,600 shares. It competes with big players such as Amazon, Flipkart and Meesho.

Its revenue from operations for the period ended September 2021, stood at ₹238 crore, and its loss during the period was ₹177 crore. For the six months ended September 30, 2021 its business promotion expense was ₹126 crore. Its other expenses decreased by 63.45% to ₹228 crore in FY2021 compared to ₹62.5 crore in FY2020.

Start-ups such as Droom, PharmEasy and BoAt too recently shelved their IPO plans. In 2017, Snapdeal struggled to sustain and also called off sale to its rival, Flipkart.

The ecommerce firm soon started on the Snapdeal 2.0 journey and focused on its core audience- value-conscious mega segment. Over 70% of its users are from outside Tier-II towns.

Forex reserves up $11 billion to $561 billion

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU
@New Delhi

THE country's forex reserves shot up by $11 billion to $561 billion in the week ended December 2, 2022. This is the fourth consecutive week in which the country's forex reserves have increased.

The reserves had fallen from the peak of $642 billion in November 2021 to $524 billion in the week-ending October 21, 2022. The trend reversed afterwards, and the reserve regained $47 billion since then.

Foreign reserves of the country consist of foreign currency assets, gold reserves and Special drawing rights (SDRs). SDR is an international reserve asset created by the IMF to supplement the official reserves of its member countries. In the week that ended on 2 December, foreign currency assets increased by $9.7 while gold reserves increased by $1 billion.

CENTRAL BANK FX RESERVES FALL TO $6.7 BN

Pakistan's foreign exchange reserves fell by $784 million to $6.7 billion as of December 2, the central bank said in a statement on Thursday, as the country struggles to meet external financing. A drop means the nuclear-armed nation's reserves have fallen further from November's barely one month of import cover, even as it battles decades of high inflation and scrambles to secure IMF funds. "This fall is on account of payment of US $1,000 million against maturing Pakistan International Sukuk and some other external debt repayments," the statement said. It said some debt repayments were offset by inflows, mainly $500 million received from Asian Infrastructure Investment Bank. Pakistan is in dire need of funds to cover its current account deficit and debt obligations, for which it needs over $30 billion in external financing this financial year. Expected funds from the IMF have been delayed as the programme's ninth review is yet to begin. Pakistan's finance minister said they would get $3 billion from a "friendly country" this month.

THAILAND

FINANCIAL SYSTEM STABLE, MAY EXPOSE TO GLOBAL RISKS

Thailand's financial system is resilient but stability could be affected by an abrupt change in the global financial market, which warrants close monitoring, the central bank said on Friday. Potential impacts include deterioration in debt serviceability of households and smaller businesses if the global economy heads into recession and subsequently deters Thailand's economic recovery, it said in a statement. The Bank of Thailand's (BOT) statement detailed the outcome of Tuesday's meeting between the monetary policy and financial institutions policy committees. Higher volatility of risky asset and funding costs of the corporate sector arising from global uncertainty could affect financial institutions, it added. However, the Thai economy is expected to continue on a steady recovery path and the BOT's gradual and measured monetary policy tightening has been consistent with the economic environment, it said.

PHILIPPINES

REVISES 2022, 2023 C/A PROJECTIONS

The Philippine central bank on Friday revised its current account projections for 2022 and 2023 to take into account the weaker global growth outlook, elevated inflation and the domestic economy's pace of expansion. The central bank now expects a current account deficit of $20.5 billion, or 5.1 per cent of gross domestic product (GDP), this year, compared with its previous projection of $20.6 billion, or 5 per cent of GDP. For 2023, it expects a current account deficit of $19.9 billion, or 4.7 per cent of GDP, compared with its earlier deficit forecast of $20.1 billion, or 4.5 per cent of GDP. The central bank said the revisions reflected intensifying external risks from a more subdued global growth outlook, persistent inflation pressures, the protracted Ukraine-Russia conflict, and supply chain disruptions. Central bank officials also took into consideration the positive outlook for the Philippine economy which was on track to meet its growth target of 6.5 per cent-7.5 per cent this year, with the pace of expansion forecast to remain at least 6 per cent next year.

High interest rate, price hikes may dent consumer confidence: FADA

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU
@New Delhi

AUTO dealership body Federation of Automobile Dealers Associations (FADA) on Friday said repetitive repo rate hike by the Reserve Bank of India (RBI) will further lead to a higher cost of borrowing apart from the price hikes done by OEMs (original equipment manufacturers).

This, according to FADA, may dent consumer confidence especially in the two-wheeler and entry level passenger vehicle segment. The RBI on Wednesday increased the benchmark rate by 35 basis points (BPS) to 6.25%. The repo rate has now gone up 225 bps since May 2022 and this in turn has pushed housing loan rates to over 9%. While interest rates for fixed-rate loans, such as personal loans, remain the same throughout the tenure, for retail loans, including home loans and auto loans, the rates are linked to an external benchmark set by the Reserve Bank of India.

When the repo rate goes up, the repo rate linked lending rate (RLLR) of commercial banks and NBFCs banks also increases. Add to it, most automakers, including top players such as Hero MotoCorp, Maruti Suzuki and Tata Motors have increased vehicle prices by 3-4 times this calendar year. Almost all the automakers are likely to go for another round of price hike in January 2023.

Meanwhile, FADA reported that November 2022 clocked highest retail sales in the history of Indian automobile industry with March 2020 being an exception when retails were higher due to BS-4 to BS-6 transition.

Manish Raj Singhania, President of FADA, said, "The baton was passed by the positive run of festive sales to Indian wedding season (from November 14 to December 14) where nearly 32 lakh weddings will be solemnised across the country."

Nearly 23.80 lakh units were retailed in November 2022, compared to 18.93 lakh units in November 2021.

BSNL, MTNL losses at ₹73K cr since inception

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU
@New Delhi

STATE-owned telecom operator BSNL reported a loss of ₹57,671 crore since inception while MTNL lost nearly ₹14,989 crore till March 2022.

Minister of state telecom Devusinh Chauhan said the reasons for loss are high employee cost over the years, debt burden, stiff competition in the market and lack of 4G services (except on a limited basis in certain areas). On the question of pumping money in the loss-making telco, he said both telcos are important for implementing citizen centric schemes of the government, especially in rural and remote uncovered areas. "BSNL has provided 24,58,827 FTTH (fiber to the home) connections as of September 30, 2022. Further, in line with the Atma-nirbhar initiative of the government, BSNL was directed to deploy Indian 4G stack. BSNL has floated the tender in October 2022 for its requirement of 1 lakh 4G sites," said the minister in a written reply in Rajya Sabha. Recently, telecom minister Ashwini Vaishnaw said BSNL's 4G technology will be upgraded to 5G in next five-seven months. BSNL has about 1,35,000 mobile towers across the country with a very strong presence in rural belt. Rural areas are yet to be covered by private telecom operators. For rolling out their 4G networks, it is going to use indigenous 4G technology stack, which will be upgraded to 5G in next few months.

Government has been trying to revive the loss-making telco, in 2019 it approved the revival plan for BSNL and MTNL, which includes reduction in employee costs through voluntary retirement scheme (VRS), debt restructuring by raising sovereign guarantee bonds, administrative allotment of spectrum for 4G services through capital infusion, monetisation of core and non-core assets and in-principle approval of merger of BSNL and MTNL. Recently, in a bid to revive the telco and make it viable public sector undertaking (PSU), the government gave a relief package of ₹1.64 lakhs crore on July 27, 2022. "As a result of these, BSNL and MTNL have become EBITDA (earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization) positive since the financial year 2020-21," said Devusinh Chauhan.

PUBLIC NOTICE
FOR LOST OF DOCUMENT

I am issuing this public notice under the instructions of my client Dr.Rashmi Yogish, # 36, 36th Main, BTM 1st Stage, Dollar Scheme Layout, Bangalore – 560 068, Aadhar No.7754 3157 7161, that Dr.Rashmi Yogish and Dr.Yogish Vijaya Kumar, are the joint owners of the property bearing No.5/A, formed by the Bangalore Development Authority, in Sarakki Industrial Layout, presently at Bannerghatta Road, J.P.Nagar, 3rd Phase, Bangalore, Presently under the limits of Bruhat Bangalore Mahanagara Palike, Totally Measuring: 7745 Sq.feet and bounded on the : East by : Road, West by : Property No.54, North by : Property No.5/B and South by : Property No.4.

It is hereby informing to the general public that Mr.Vedha Bhooshan, Manager at M/s.Bikaner House Silks Limited had lost/misplaced the Original Possession Certificate, dated: 29/07/1980, bearing P.R.No.155/78-79, issued by the Bangalore Development Authority in favour of M/s.Crescent Industries and Original Sale Deed (for Industrial Sites), dated: 16/06/1987, executed by the Bangalore Development Authority, Represented by its Deputy Secretary in favour of M/s.Crescent Industries, Represented by Mr.Akal Kumar Munoyat, which was registered as Document No.1877/1987-88, of Book – I, Volume – 2611, Pages: 75 to 78, registered on 04/07/1987, registered in the Office of the Sub-registrar, Bangalore South Taluk, in respect of the said property, while travelling to their Advocate's office by scooter on 27th September, 2022 at about 5.00 p.m., he lost plastic folder containing Original Possession Certificate, dated: 29/07/1980 and Original Sale Deed (for Industrial Sites), dated: 16/06/1987 and presume this was lost somewhere on Margrath Road.

Mr.Vedha Bhooshan, Manager at M/s.Bikaner House Silks Limited, had already lodged FIR, dated: 28/09/2022, vide Lost Article Report No.0345936/2022, u/s 155 CrPC, before the jurisdictional Police and issued Public Notice, dated: 29/09/2022, in daily newspaper i.e., Indian Express regarding the same. But in the said FIR, dated: 28/09/2022 and Public Notice, dated: 29/09/2022, in the description, the Sale Deed document No. was wrongly mentioned as 877 instead of Document No.1877/1987-88 and regarding Possession Certificate nowhere mentioned.

Hence once again it is hereby informing to the general public that Mr.Vedha Bhooshan, Manager at M/s.Bikaner House Silks Limited, had lost the Original Possession Certificate, dated: 29/07/1980, bearing P.R.No.155/78-79, issued by the Bangalore Development Authority in favour of M/s.Crescent Industries and Original Sale Deed (for Industrial Sites), dated: 16/06/1987, executed by the Bangalore Development Authority, Represented by its Deputy Secretary in favour of M/s.Crescent Industries, Represented by Mr.Akal Kumar Munoyat, which was registered as Document No.1877/1987-88, of Book – I, Volume – 2611, Pages: 75 to 78, registered on 04/07/1987, registered in the Office of the Sub-registrar, Bangalore South Taluk, in respect of the said property.

Further hereby informing that the said document/s are not traceable. For brevity of said deed as state supra, I am issuing this public notice. If any body found the said document, the same may be handed over at the below mentioned address.

Qatar FIFA WORLD CUP FINALS 2022

Portugal's Cristiano Ronaldo (C) & his teammates take part in a training session at the Al Shahaniya SC training site in Doha on Friday | AFP

Ronaldo, Portugal look to finish Morocco's streak

STEVE DOUGLAS @Doha

THESE really are pinch-yourself times for Morocco: A first ever spot in the quarterfinals of a World Cup — the first to take place in the Arab world, no less — and now a meeting with Portugal and their superstar striker, Cristiano Ronaldo.

Well, maybe.

Because Ronaldo has again managed to steal the spotlight in his inimitable way, even bumping Morocco's historic run to the last eight off the top of the agenda ahead of Saturday's narrative-laden match.

Will he start, or won't he? That's the big question being asked about Ronaldo after he was dropped by Portugal coach Fernando Santos for the 6-1 win over Switzerland in the Round of 16 on Tuesday. Not only was the five-time world player of the year relegated to the bench, his replacement — 21-year-old Goncalo Ramos — scored a hat-trick to leave Santos with quite the selection dilemma against Morocco.

The announcement of Portugal's team some 90 minutes before the game is keenly awaited as Ronaldo prepares to play in the quarterfinals of the World Cup for just the second time in his glittering career. Portugal is at this stage for only the third time, perhaps surprising given the talent to have come from the country down the years.

As for Morocco, the nation is in uncharted territory after becoming only the fourth African country to reach the quarterfinals at football's biggest tournament, after Cameroon (1990), Senegal (2002) and Ghana (2010). None of them reached the semifinals. Morocco is also the only team from outside Europe or South America to make it to the last eight in Qatar.

Their penalty-shootout victory over Spain in the Last 16 sparked wild celebrations not just among its many fans in Qatar but at home and also in the Moroccan diaspora of around 5 million people spread mostly around Europe, which has united behind the World Cup run of the team nicknamed the "Atlas Lions."

Morocco fans poured into the streets of European cities to celebrate the team's passage to the quarterfinals, which came after Morocco advanced from a group containing second-ranked Belgium and 2018 runner-up Croatia.

The team is coached by Walid Regragui, who was born in France, and 14 of the 26 players in the squad were born abroad — the highest proportion for any team at a World Cup being held in the Middle East for the first time in its 92-year history.

The Arab world's standard bearer, Morocco is in the quarterfinals on merit, too. The team has only conceded one goal — and that was an own-goal against Canada — and is proving so well-organized, with a sturdy back four headlined by Achraf Hakimi, a dedicated midfield anchorman in Sofyan Amrabat, two mercurial wingers in Hakim Ziyech and Sofiane Boufal, and a striker in Youssef En-Nesyri who occupies defenses with his relentless work rate.

> Cristiano (Ronaldo) obviously was not very happy about it. He told me 'Do you really think it's a good idea?'. He has never told me that he wanted to leave the national team.
>
> Fernando Santos, Portugal coach clears air about reports stating that Ronaldo wanted to leave team after being benched in the last game

Three key players might be struggling to be healthy enough to play against Portugal, though.

Amrabat said he played with a back injury requiring painkilling injections in the match against Spain, during which captain Romain Saiss finished the game with his leg bandaged up after treatment and fellow center back Nayef Aguerd hobbled off in tears with an apparent thigh injury. Portugal doesn't appear to have such problems, with Santos' squad depth so impressive that he could afford to leave players like Ronaldo, Joao Cancelo and Ruben Neves on the bench against Switzerland after they started every group game.

Santos said he picks his team according to the strengths and weaknesses of his opponent but it will be a surprise if he makes any changes.

Even if he starts as a substitute again, Ronaldo — playing in his likely last World Cup — is expected to see some time on the field. Given the drama constantly surrounding him, he's sure to be a talking point whatever happens. AP

Morocco: Bono (1), Hakimi (2), Aguerd (5), Saiss (6), Mazraoui (3), Amrabat (4), Ounahi (8), Amallah (15), Ziyech (7), Boufal (17), En-Nesyri (19).

Portugal: Costa (22), Dalot (2), Pepe (3), Dias (4), Guerreiro (5), Carvalho (14), Otavio (25), Silva (9), Fernandes (8), Felix (11), Ramos (26).

MATCH POINT

Portugal begin favourites but Morocco have upset the odds a few times. A look at the first of Saturday's quarterfinals...

MOROCCO

One of the most defensive-minded sides in this year's edition deserve to be here on merit. They have looked suspect while defending set-pieces but, overall, they have carried their gameplan to a T. However, the backline picked up a few injuries during the win over Spain so what shape are those players in?

PORTUGAL

They began shakily and their attack has stopped and started. But the decision to drop to Cristiano Ronaldo gave them rich rewards in a dominant display against Switzerland. The question, though, is will they continue to back the young Goncalo Ramos or will there be a recall for the skipper?

KEY CLASHES

SOFYAN AMRABAT VS BRUNO FERNANDES

The Manchester attacker has quietly put together a series of commanding front-foot performances. He's so good at the assist as well as the pre-assist. Amrabat, whose job is to stop players orchestrating the attacking play, has been equally good. Keep an eye out for this.

JOAO FELIX VS ACHRAF HAKIMI

One of the most talented wide forwards up against one of the best right-backs in the game today. Hakimi has been on fire with his tackles and defensive clearances. If Felix gets some joy, it will be advantage Portugal.

FOOTBALL, BLOODY HELL!

Croatia survive 120 minutes against Brazil before turning things around in shootouts

SWAROOP SWAMINATHAN
@ Chennai

ICE in their veins. One by one, Croatia's players walked up to the spot that would decide their destiny. Find the net or go home. All four of them found the net with unerring accuracy. Alisson Becker had no chance. When the fourth Brazilian player walked up to take what was already a decisive sudden-death penalty, you could feel the tension, even on the TV screen.

Marquinhos had to score to keep Brazil's dream alive. What stood between him and the dream, though, was the sizable frame of Dominik Livakovic, the man of the match. He had already thwarted multiple Brazilian attempts in normal time apart from keeping out Rodrygo's first penalty out.

The defender hit a daisy-cutter to the keeper's right but it struck the foot of the post and rebounded safely to spark scenes of unspeakable joy among the Croatian players. For Brazil, this was another World Cup that has slipped away from them. This time, they had the players to win the whole thing. Heck, when they touched in Qatar, they were favourites not on tradition but because of form and the players they had at their disposal.

They had displayed brief glimpses, the crowning glory being the 4-1 win over South Korea. But they wanted South Korea to be the starting point of a glorious sixth triumph. Instead, it will now be a footnote in another failed odyssey. The immediate post mortem points to a recent failing of the Selecao in not playing enough European sides.

Now, each of their last five World Cup adventures have been cut shot at the hands of elite European opposition. Since they beat Germany in the final of the 2002 World Cup, they have lost five times to as many sides. In 2006, it was France (0-1). In 2010, it was Netherlands (1-2). Germany's 1-7 in 2014 was followed by Belgium's 1-2 in 2018. Croatia, finalists four years before, came in with one of the most experienced side.

Croatia won 4-2 on penalties

THIS WAY AND THAT

In an absorbing contest, here's a look at few moments that heled define the match.

SHOUTS FOR RED CARD TURNED DOWN

After half-way through the first-half Croatian players screamed for a red-card for a high boot by Danilo. Referee Michael Oliver only gave a yellow but it was an offence that possibly merited something greater.

VAR TURNS DOWN PENALTY CLAIMS

Croatia's Josip Juranovic clearly handled the ball inside the area before Vinicius Jr develoepd the move. After it came to nothing, VAR took a good long look at the incident before turning it down.

LIVAKOVIC, CROATIA'S WALL

On the few occasions Brazil did manage to breach their opponents' low block, Dominik Livakovic was there, on hand to snuff out the danger. In all he made 10 saves, including four from Neymar.

Mbappe, France's inevitable force

SWAROOP SWAMINATHAN @Chennai

FOR more than a decade, Arsene Wenger had the total command of the French market, especially the youngsters. During the 2016-17 season, when the then Arsenal manager was gradually losing his mojo, he opened his contacts books and turned towards France for one of the final times in his career. It was a call to one of his old clubs, Monaco.

A young player was making heads turn and Wenger, who made a young player from Monaco one of the best in the world (Thierry Henry), thought he could do something similar. The only problem was this young player was making heads turn whereever he went. Scouts up and down Europe landed at the Stade Louis II to watch this teenager in action. Even if he was just 17 at the time, there was a physical maturity beyond his years. He was shrugging off defenders twice his age, beating them for pace and physicality.

It kind of helped that Kylian Mbappe, who had come through the youth system AS Bondy before making senior debut for Monaco, had already set a string of records. Incidentally, he broke Henry's record when he made his professional debut before 17. So, it was natural for Wenger to put on a charm offensive to try and get this kid, widely anointed as the next big in world football even then. But Mbappe had already become a phenomenon in under a year.

He also broke another of Henry's old Monaco records when he became the youngest goalscorer in the club's history. Hattricks followed. In one of his most memorable performances for Monaco, he made Pep Guardiola's Manchester City look like a team made of school kids in the Champions League. Over 18 extraordinary minutes, Mbappe not only scored twice but put himself in a shop window with his extraordinary dribbling ability, deadly finishing skills and pace to burn. It's these three traits that have helped make him as the sport's apex predator since owning the last World Cup in Russia.

In 2018, after moving to PSG, all eyes were on him as Les Bleus landed in Russia. While he has failed in quest to make PSG European champions, the 23-year-old is at a very different level for his country. He has already showed it multiple times in Qatar as he leads the Golden Boot (and, probably, the Golden Ball) race with five goals (two clear of the next best).

A bit like that meme of Thanos, Mbappe, in the form he is in currently, feels inevitable. One only needed to listen to France coach, Didier Deschamps, ahead of the quarterfinal against England. "I imagine England will take measures like our four previous opponents did but Kylian has the ability to make the difference," Deschamps said on Friday. "Even in the last game, when he wasn't at his best like in the first two, he was still decisive, but if we can share around the danger that stops too many precautions being taken against Kylian. But Kylian will always be Kylian, with the ability to be decisive at any moment."

He can flick the switch at any movement, it feels like he is a video game player, a cheat code. Like Deschamps said, the teams that came before England tried. And failed. Poland right-back Matty Cash, who was tasked with playing against him, had this to say. "I spent the afternoon watching his clips and I knew it was going to be a tough test, but when he gets the ball, stops and moves, he's the quickest thing I've ever seen," the Aston Villa defender, was quoted as saying by The Guardian. "... he's burning my legs. When he stands you up and moves he does it really well. He drops the shoulder, goes short then long. I got into a couple of races with him and I did all right. You look over your shoulder and he's there." The people who reported on that game too felt Cash had done alright. Mbappe scored two goals.

It's why England have spent a lot of time on how to stop Mbappe. As world champions, France have multiple weapons and England can ill-afford to ignore any of them. But the biggest weapon in that arsenal is Mbappe. Stop him and the rest could suffer.

France: Lloris (1), Kounde (5), Varane (4), Upamaceno (18), Theo (22), Tchouameni (8), Rabiot (14), Dembele (11), Griezmann (7), Mbappe (10), Giroud (9).

England: Pickford (1), Walker (2), Stones (5), Maguire (6), Shaw (3), Rice (4), Henderson (8), Bellingham (22), Saka (17), Foden (20), Kane (9).

BATTLE FOR THE AGES

HOLDERS FRANCE FACE A STIFF ENGLISH EXAM IF THEY ARE TO ADVANCE TO THE SEMIFINALS. A LOOK...

FRANCE

Les Bleus have been robbed off a number of quality players to injury but the machine has carried on well enough. With Kylian Mbappe working like a dream, the supporting cast have kept the engine well-oiled. The one minor point of concern is a lack of goal-scorers, with eight of the nine coming from Mbappe (5) or Olivier Giroud (3).

ENGLAND

There were concerns over the side picking pragmatism over enterprising. Yet, they are the leading scorers with 12 goals in the four matches thus far. The goals have been well spread out so they have multiple threats. 2018 semi-finalists will quietly fancy their chances against a side that is yet to keep a clean sheet.

KEY CLASHES

MBAPPE VS ENG'S RIGHT

For all practical purposes, the winner of this battle will likely win the contest. For what's it's worth, England has Bukayo Saka down this side. He is bang in form and Mbappe doesn't do a lot of tracking back, so can they profit?

BELLINGHAM VS RABIOT

They have been the two of the best midfielders of this tournament. Both of them like to pick the ball, look for a pass or even drive with the ball. There will be runners in front of them. Who will come up trumps will hand their side a big advantage.

Arab rivalries set aside for Morocco's run

AFP @ Doha

THE T-shirt on sale at Doha's main market declares "Our blood is Arab", and that is the mood buoying Morocco as it prepares to become on Saturday the first Arab nation to play a World Cup quarterfinal.

Regional rivalries are being forgotten. Morocco's red flag with a green star is becoming a best-seller seen across Doha ahead of their clash with Portugal.

The flag – along with those of Qatar, Tunisia and Saudi Arabia – features on the "Our blood is Arab" T-shirt selling at Doha's Souq Waqif market. Organisers of the first World Cup in the Middle East have long portrayed the tournament as a chance to build up Arab fervour.

Omar Babiker, an Algerian, is dreaming of Morocco reaching the last four even though his country has strained ties with its neighbour. After decades of mistrust over the disputed Western Sahara territory, Algeria severed diplomatic relations in 2021 over "hostile actions". But Oran businessman Babiker, who is in Doha with his son, echoed the feelings of many Arabs when he told AFP: "Politics is for politicians. "I am with Morocco. Morocco is like Algeria. I hope they go a long way."

Morocco's run has inspired similar joy across the Arab world. Many leaders sent messages of congratulations to the team after they beat Spain on Tuesday.

Libyans set off fireworks in Tripoli despite their country's conflict and economic crisis.

In war-ravaged Syria, Mustafa Yassin, a dentist in the city of Idlib, honoured a Facebook pledge to treat 20 people for free if Morocco reached the quarter-finals.

Lebanon's French-language L'Orient-Le Jour newspaper put the team on its front page, proclaiming: "Pride of the Arabs".

SOUTHGATE VOWS FRONT FOOT APPROACH

LONDON: England manager Gareth Southgate has urged the Three Lions to take the game to France in a blockbuster quarterfinal clash. The threat of Kylian Mbappe has led to suggestions Southgate could change his formation with an extra defender added to deal with France's front four of Mbappe, Olivier Giroud, Antoine Griezmann and Ousmane Dembele. "There is no point going into a game like this and just covering up and sitting on the ropes. We believe we can cause problems with the ball and we intend to do that," Southgate told ITV. England reached the semifinals four years ago as France went onto claim their second World Cup in Russia.

Sterling back in training for England

AL WAKRAH: Raheem Sterling was back in training for England on Friday after returning to Qatar ahead of Saturday's World Cup quarterfinal with France. Sterling did not feature in the Round of 16 match against Senegal after returning to England following a robbery at his home. The Chelsea forward flew out to Doha on Thursday and was back out on the field at Al Wakrah Sports Club with the other 24 members of England's squad. Declan Rice was involved in the session for the second straight day.

Ahmed 7-fer helps Pak rein in England

Unheralded Abrar Ahmed bagged a rich haul of seven wickets in a dream debut as Pakistan's spinners kept England's aggression in check on the first day of the second Test in Multan on Friday. The 24-year-old mystery spinner grabbed 7-114 to dismiss England for 281. Brief scores: England 281 (Duckett 63, Pope 60; Abrar 7/114) vs Pakistan 107/2 (Babar 61 batting).

Serving pizzas to WC crosses: Fofana story

RONALD BLUM @Doha

YOUSSOUF Fofana has gone from serving pizzas to delivering crosses in the World Cup. Dropped in 2015 at age 14 from Clairefontaine, France's national training center, his future in football seemed at an end. So he went to work for a pizzeria.

"That was the best way to earn money and also to follow my dreams," the 23-year-old midfielder said Thursday, two days before France meets England in a World Cup quarterfinal. Fofana made his French national team debut in September and was picked by coach Didier Deschamps for the 26-man team that is defending Les Bleus' World Cup title. He entered as a second-half sub in the group stage wins over Australia and Denmark, started in the 1-0 loss to Tunisia, and played the last 25 minutes of the round of 16 victory over Poland. Quite the turnaround for a player who needed two years to find a professional club. He played for Drancy, an amateur side in Paris' northeast suburbs before signing with Strasbourg's youth academy in 2017. "I had my doubts, and you have to know how to move forward," he said through an interpreter.

He made his Ligue 1 debut against Lyon on Aug. 24, 2018, moved to Monaco in January 2020 and reached the Europa League with his new club in 2021-22 and the current season. Fofana was in a jovial mood when discussing preparations. Asked about the frame of mind in the dressing room before World Cup kickoffs, he responded: "The atmosphere is tense, tense, tense." "No, I'm joking," he went on adding, "We can wear headphones, so if we don't like the chosen music for the group, then we can listen to our own music."

Defender Dayot Upamecano said he has spoken with Marcel Desailly, a defender on France's 1998 champion team. "He's given me some advice and I should continue doing what I'm doing," he said through an interpreter. AP

Rahul & Co. look to avoid clean sweep for the 1st time since SA tour

GOMESH S @Chennai

THE series might have been lost, but as India take the field on Saturday for the third ODI against Bangladesh, they would not be thinking about it. In their last white-ball game of the year, India would want to finish on a high. Washington Sundar said as much ahead of the match.

"Obviously, we will look to win. We will look to play good cricket and end the ODI series on a high," said the all-rounder in the pre-match press conference.

"Every game is an opportunity for us to keep getting better, to get the right rhythm, and obviously, perform really well as a team."

As it has been the case, they have injury concerns for the final match as well. There is no Rohit Sharma, Deepak Chahar or even Kuldeep Sen. Kuldeep Yadav has been drafted into the squad and will probably end up playing for the success the spinners have had so far in this series. What also encourages them to do is the promise Washington and Axar Patel have shown with the bat.

And the TN all-rounder wants to continue to contribute in every way possible. "With the World Cup next year, I want to be the player who could play in any situation, in any sort of combinations, and wherever the team needs. To win games, wherever they ask me to play, I will play. That's the kind of player I want to be," he said.

In the absence of Rohit, it will be interesting to see if captain KL Rahul comes up the order or sticks to his role in the middle-order and Virat Kohli moves up as he did in the second game.

It might also be an opportunity for the former India captain to regain some form in a format where he has a prolific record. Since his mental health break, Kohli has scored his 71st ton, lit up the World Cup in Australia and scored some crucial runs for the team in the shortest format. That said, his last ODI hundred came in 2019 and he might want to get back to scoring centuries as he used to in the format. For his form in ODIs is vital for India in a World Cup year.

Meanwhile, the focus will be on Rahul as well, mainly for the tactical calls he makes on the field. His captaincy for India has come under the radar in the one Test and the three ODIs in South Africa. And it was the same in the second ODI when India let Bangladesh get to 271/7 after reducing them to 69/6. What's more, if Rohit doesn't get fit in time for the Tests, he might just be leading the team in the longer format as well. Which is why, Rahul would want to get all the decisions right and finish the series with a win.

If India lose, it will be their first clean sweep defeat since Rahul Dravid took over as head coach of the team—the last being the 0-3 ODI series loss against South Africa in January 2022. At this point, it seems clear that some decisive decisions are likely to be made by the board before the home series against Sri Lanka. And both the Rahuls — captain and coach — would need some positives to take from the series before that happens.

Can India finish on high?

The Men in Blue have lost the ODI series already. But as they play their last white-ball game of the year, they would want end on a happy note. A look...

EYES ON KOHLI

Virat Kohli might have turned it around in T20Is in the last couple of months, but he hasn't done the same in ODIs. Having scored his last ODI ton in 2019, it would not be a bad time to end the draught.

INJURIES & REPLACEMENTS

Rohit Sharma is back in India. Kuldeep Sen and Deepak Chahar too have been ruled out of the series. Meanwhile, a wrist spinner in Kuldeep Yadav has been included in the squad for the third ODI.

CHANCE FOR A CLEAN SWEEP

The last time India lost all three matches in a ODI series was against South Africa in 2021 under KL Rahul, who incidentally, will also lead India on Saturday. If they win, it will be their first clean sweep in a bilateral series against India.

Poor fielding, middle-over lull cost India in first T20I

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Chennai

WHEN Deepti Sharma took the Australian bowlers to cleaners, smashing an unbeaten 16-ball 36 to help India finish with 172/5 in the first T20I at the DY Patil, it seemed like the Women in Blue had a game in their hands. However, Beth Mooney (89 n.o off 57) and Tahlia McGrath (40 n.o off 29) made a mockery of the target as Australia cruised to victory with eleven balls and nine wickets to spare.

Not that India were too bad with the ball, but it was a combination of bad fielding and some calculated chasing masterclass from the Australian women that stole the show. That Harmanpreet Kaur's poor loss record - she acknowledged it before the start of the game - and the dew factor did not help them either as they were put in to bat first.

Meghna Singh, whose selection was under the radar for her poor T20 record this year (3 wickets in 6 matches with economy of 8.73 in T20Is vs AUS/PAK/BAR/ENG and 2 wickets in 5 matches with 8.4 RPO in 2022-23 domestic T20s), had another poor outing going for 27 runs in two overs.

Earlier in the day, India started off well racing to 48/2 in the end of the powerplay, but a lull period followed as they scored 39/2 in the next 42 balls. But Richa Ghosh took charge from thereon, smashing Alana King for three consecutive boundaries, including a six. Devika Vaidya, too, joined the party as she sent Jess Jonassen over the ropes. Once Richa got out, it was all Deepti, who played the field, smashed four consecutive boundaries off Megan Schutt in the final over. It was her cameo that helped India score 39 runs in the last three overs. In the end, it was not enough.

Brief scores: India 172/5 in 20 ovs (Deepti 36 n.o, Richa 36) lost to Australia 173/1 in 18.1 ovs (Mooney 89 n.o, McGrath 40 n.o).

Retro-inspired tinted glasses are becoming popular, especially in red, orange, and yellow, this season

THROUGH TINTED LENS

MONIKA MONALISA

JENNIFER Lopez started the Christmas fever early when she dropped her picture in a red suit – accessorising it with tinted red sunglasses – on her Instagram handle. Seems like retro-tinted glasses are quite a trend among fashionistas now. Apart from JLo, this style has become popular with many international celebrities like Kim Kardashian, Justin Bieber, and Rihanna as well as B-Town sensations like Ranveer Singh and Vicky Kaushal who have also hopped onto the bandwagon.

The craze for tinted glasses – in red, orange, and yellow – has also caught up with trendsetters in the city. Pranwesha Kundu, with her pink-tinted sunglasses and boho look, grabbed all the attention at recently-concluded music concert, Echoes of Earth. "I do a lot of international music festivals where I come across styles which would not have come to India. The first time I spotted tinted glasses was at Tomorrowland in 2018. It was such a vibe that I fell in love with it. It's understated and at the same time, so chic and makes a statement," says Kundu, a model and content creator. Out of all the celebrities, Kundu feels JLo carries tinted glasses like a 'boss woman'!

While many feel that tinted glasses bring in a boho chic look, actor and TV presenter Shanu Suresh says it completely depends on how you style it. "It surely gives a very day-look vibe. But it is also quite versatile. For example, you can pair the tinted glasses to suit your style and make it formal-yet-chic. It can be paired with any outfit. It is one of the must-picks during my holidays," says Suresh. Her point is well justified if one looks at Ranveer Singh's recent looks of teaming up a formal suit with his tinted glasses.

If you are someone who doesn't mind spending some extra bucks, then some of the luxury brands you can check out for these glasses are Gucci, Carrera and Cutler and Gross. "Cutler and Gross is known for the tinted glasses but Carrera makes glasses with tinted lenses which are dramatic and bold. One of the USPs of luxury brands is quality," says Meghana Manay, CEO of SR Gopal Rao Opticians and Optometrists. Apart from looks, people don't mind doubling it up as nightwear glasses. "When you spend on luxury brands, it costs a lot of money, so the usage has to be more than just looks. The yellow tints are usually popular picks for its dual usage as night vision glasses as well," she adds.

QUICK FIX

PAZHAM PORI OR BANANA FRITTERS

Contributed by Priya Shiva, Chennai

INGREDIENTS

- Nendran bananas: 2
- Rice flour: 1 tbsp
- Maida/ all purpose flour: 1 cup
- Baking soda: 1/4 tsp
- Salt: 1/2 tsp
- Turmeric powder: 1/4 tsp
- Sugar: 1 tsp
- Vegetable oil for deep frying

METHOD

- Peel and cut the bananas into two halves each. Chop them into equal slices.
- Add all-purpose flour, rice flour, salt, baking soda, sugar, and turmeric in a mixing bowl.
- Now slowly add water to make a smooth batter. The batter should be thick enough to coat the bananas.
- Heat oil in a frying pan.
- Dip each slice of banana in the batter and slide them into the oil carefully.
- Fry till they turn slightly golden brown.

A WONDERFUL JOURNEY OF AN EXTRAORDINARY MAN

A SHARADHAA

VIJAYANAND

Director: Rishika Sharma

Cast: Nihal, Ananth Nag, Ravichandran, Prakash Belawadi, Vinaya Prasad, Bharat Bopanna, and Rajesh Nataranga

IT is said that memories are simply moments that refuse to be ordinary. And with Vijayanand, director Rishika Sharma captures the life of an extraordinary man, who 'made his own road, and drove on it too'. Depicting the life of Vijay Sankeshwar, the founder of VRL Group, Rishika's second outing as a director tells the inspiring tale of the mammoth transport company, which started off with just one lorry. Rishika's biopic adroitly stitches the ups and downs of his life, of course, sprinkling commercial elements while doing so.

The film is told through Anand Sankeshwar, Vijay's son, and covers many aspects of his father's life. The narrative begins with Vijay (Nihal) introducing his father, BG Sankeshwar (Anant Nag). In a flashback, we also get to see Vijay Sankeshwar's backstory, his growing-up days, and his childhood friends. We also get a brief look into his marriage to Lalitha (Siri Prahalad) and the turning point when he decides to get out of his comfort zone of running the printing press and choosing to get into the transport business despite the family's opposition. Vijay takes a risk, defaults on debt, buys a lorry, and sets out to chase his dream. The path is exciting but filled with obstacles. One part that keeps the excitement going is how he goes about clearing the roadblocks of his life, and how he manages to succeed. The second half covers his brief entry into politics, and how he got into the media business and became number one.

Tracing the life of a personality like Vijay Sankeshwar is a huge responsibility, but Rishika makes it entertaining. Vijayanand never seems like an exaggeration; it remains pragmatic and inspiring. However, the duration of the film is a dampener, and repetitive scenes are a disappointment.

Despite this, the film is definitely watchable, especially for the dialogues in the North Karnataka setting, the retro-style scenes, the setups, and the background music, which keeps it entertaining. Nihal silences a certain section of detractors who wanted a notable actor to play the lead. His commitment to the role, even radically altering his features to fit into the character, is applaudable. Bharath Bopanna as Anand Sankeswar fits the bill and has given a neat performance. Anant Nag as BG Sankeshwar is the highlight of Vijayanand, who stays true to the character of a humble person in North Karnataka, and his presence is profound, especially through his dialogue delivery. Ravichandran too has a strong presence in the film, which has a decent performance by Prakash Belawadi, who plays a press editor. Other characters too have done justice to their respective roles.

Gopi Sundar's music gives the film extra mileage while Raghu Niduvalli's dialogues as well as Hemanth and Keerthan Poojary's efforts also stand out.

Vijayanand showcases an ambitious man's dogged persistence and perseverance, and is definitely an inspiring watch.

The film, which marks the debut of cinematographer-turned director Karm Chawla, will hit the screens on Dec 16

Vinay Rajkumar's sports drama gets a release date

CE FEATURES

VINAY Rajkumar's next, 10, which marks the directorial debut of cinematographer Karm Chawla, gets its release date. The long-pending film, which will see the young actor play the role of a professional boxer, is all set to hit the theatres on December 16. An official announcement about the release was made by the producers, Pushkar Films, who also released the first single, Ennagide, on Friday.

Vinay, in his earlier interview with Cinema Express, spoke about training hard for the role. "I used to exercise for three hours, and one-and-a-half hours used to go into boxing. I also followed a strict diet. All of this helped me transform myself, and it was very organic." The film, featuring Anusha Ranganath, has Karm Chawla also doubling as the cinematographer.

A strict one-time watch

BOND RAVI

Cast: Pramod, Kajal Kunder, Shobraj, Ravi Kale, and Vijay Chendoor

Director: Prajwal

Bond Ravi is the result of debut director Prajwal's need to blend romance with typical commercial elements. Although he does show promise in his filmmaking, there are avenues that definitely need work. The premise of having his protagonist be a fearless person with uncontrolled desire is fascinating, but the channeling of this narrative needed better reasoning, which is lacking.

So, Bond Ravi is about a jailbird Ravi (Pramod) who is popular among the inmates and is constantly on the lookout for opportunities to make money. When romance enters his life, destiny changes. Can a personality like Ravi, who has no emotions, and always prioritises money, surrender to love? Will his romance meet the desired fate or will his past come back to haunt him? The narrative answers these questions in a brisk manner and will satisfy hardcore fans of masala films.

Prajwal has taken special care in sketching Pramod's titular character, which has all the commercial elements, and creates curiosity with its own twists and turns. Pramod, who has proved his talent right with his first film Geetha Bangle Stores, gets the spotlight and delivers on the mass appeal. On the whole, he delivers an exceptional performance. Kajal Kunder gets to play a strong role and makes use of the screentime she gets. The rest of the characters including Ravi Kale, Ravi Prakash, Shobhraj, Dharma, Govinda Gowda, and Vijay Chendoor, make their presence felt. Mano Murthy's score is refreshing and there are some good melodies that elevate the film. Chandrashekar has neatly captured a prisoner's life and his picturisation beautifully blends with the love story too.

Bond Ravi is definitely a unique love story, and the ingenuity of it definitely warrants a one-time watch.

Jagapathi Babu to star in Ayush Sharma's next
